Council hears lots of input on ambulance service hearing

The public hearing on an ambulance service for St. Albert took up three hours of the regular three and one-half hours meeting time at council Monday night, and it is clear that an ambulance service is six months, probably more away.

Mayor Plain reviewed as background the results of an ambulance survey done with the 1976 census when two questions were asked of voters. 3,363 people voted in favour of an emergency care service with paramedic personnel, at a cost of about $20 per year per average residential property. 2,433 voted no to this service.

3,448 people voted in favour of a municipally subsidized, privately operated ambulance service for first aid care at the scene, and during transportation to any emergency care centre, at a cost of $2 or $3 per year per average residential property.

City Manager Bob Byron summarized a memorandum of cost alternatives which he had prepared on the expectation of 1000 calls per Please turn to Page 2

Bishop's Palace in St. Albert protected as historic site

An historic landmark in St. Albert, the Bishop's Palace at #5 St. Vital Avenue, has been designed a classified Historic Site by Minister of Culture, Horst A. Schmid. The Bishop's Palace is associated with the historic St. Albert Mission founded in 1861, and is situated beside the Father Lacombe Museum overlooking the community of St. Albert.

Originally the Bishop's Palace was designed for use as a residence for the Grey Nuns, thus its architecture followed the typical French Canadian convent style used in Roman Catholic Missions in Western Canada. Its construction began in 1882 and was completed in 1887; thereafter it was the residence of Bishops Grandin and Legal. The Bishop's Palace served as an important Roman Catholic clerical centre as well as a focus for social activities associated with the St. Albert mission and the Oblate Order. From 1969-74 it was called Grandin House and has been utilized as a home for retired priests and lay brothers in the Oblate Order.

Local services for mentally retarded to be discussed

A meeting will take place on Thursday, March 3 at 7:30 p.m., which should be of interest to all those concerned with the mentally handicapped in St. Albert. It will be held in Akinsdale Clubhouse, 36 Alpine Boulevard. (Follow Hebert Road from the highway to Akins Drive. Turn right and the first opening left is Alpine Boulevard).

Initiated by a group of concerned residents in co-operation with the Community Services Department, the basic purpose of the meeting is to provide an opportunity for those with a common concern to meet.

There is no doubt that many people responsible for the care of a mentally handicapped person, child or adult, have occasionally a feeling of isolation - and, worse, that nobody cares. It is hoped that this meeting will disprove this and, while primarily of importance to families where there is incidence of mental retardation, anyone interested in what is or is not happening in this area will be more than welcome.

Membership in an association for the mentally retarded neither qualifies nor disqualifies; the only prerequisite is caring and showing that you care.

The meeting will be informal. Coffee will be served and there will be an opportunity to exchange information about the services available and to explore possibilities for the future. And the future may involve the formation of a more formally structured group; that will depend entirely on the outcome of the meeting.

Once again the time and place: 7:30 p.m., Thursday, March 3, Akinsdale Clubhouse, 36 Alpine Boulevard.

District three hears High School electives proposals

At their regular meeting Monday night, trustees of School District #3 heard a presentation from Clarence Kambeitz, principal of St. Albert High School, proposing courses of study to be included in the school's curriculum next September.

Courses in Art 10, 20 and 30 are proposed at a total initial cost of around $1,750. Mr. Kambeitz told the board that he felt there were enough students interested in this area of study to form a good-sized class. These classes, like others proposed, are felt to be competitive with the offerings of schools similar to St. Albert High and would enable students to move smoothly onto higher levels of study at other institutions.

Due to a lack of interest in traditional drama study at the school, a course is proposed in Performing Arts at the 12 level, which would combine drama and TV arts, and equipment for the latter is already available to some extent to initiate the course. Mr. Kambeitz projected a figure of $900 to initiate the course.

Mr. Kambeitz and his staff also proposed a course at the 10 level in industrial education, centered around power technology. This would cost $11,500 for both operational and equipment costs. It was emphasized that these figures do not include staff salaries. There is some question of the availability of teachers to teach the latter course and the board decided to commence advertising the post. The food science course will be continued at no extra cost. Trustee Peter Freeman moved that the board approve the program in principle and refer it to the finance committee.

LAY-OUT APPROVED

There were two other presentations for board scrutiny and approval. Mr. Bob Chaput, head of the instructional materials centre, presented the lay-out for the District annual magazine, and they were approved with some revisions.

Mrs. Ann Shopland presented a request for educational leave. She is pursuing her master's degree at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Shopland proposes to do a study on the efficacy of transitional classrooms by following the progress of the children in the District who composed the first transitional class a few years ago. She also requested access to any records needed to do the study. The board expressed interest in the study and granted her leave, adding they hoped to be able to see the results.

The board reviewed two matters of policy, on school lunches and textbook rental. Textbook rentals will be as follows: Division 1 - $11., Division 2 - $9., Division 3 - $15 and Division 4 - $21.

Mrs. Lockert gave a report from the Creative Playground Subcommittee, indicating that Harma developers were building a playground in Braeside in the area of Butterfield Crescent and that the sub-committee was advising them on the matter. Mrs. Lockert also reported for the nutrition committee that it would soon have a proposal for the policy committee on the nutritive value of vending machine food in schools.

RCMP officers nab break & entry artists

Darrell Dean Potter, 16 years, of St. Albert, and Vincent William Bellerose, 18 years of St. Albert, were charged with break, enter and theft at the Glendale Golf and Country Club on February 13, 1977.

Bellerose and Potter were arrested a short time after the break-in was reported and subsequent investigations revealed they were responsible for break-ins at the Holly Esso Restaurant and Moby Mart Grocery store at Winterburn. Potter and Bellerose appeared in Provincial Judges Court, Edmonton, February 14, 1977 and entered pleas of guilty, and have been remanded for Pre-sentence Report on March 3, 1977.

A local resident of St. Albert has been charged with the break and entering of the Sub-Post Office and the St. Albert Funland located in the Sturgeon Plaza Shopping Centre at approximately 4:30 a.m., Thursday, February 17. This adult male was caught after a brief chase by RCMP officers as he was fleeing from the scene. The person has been charged with break and entering the two business premises and is to appear in court at St. Albert on Wednesday, March 2, 1977.

Gary Norman Thorburn was convicted in Provincial Judges Court on February 17 and was fined $250 in default 60 days and Probation for 15 months with restitution. Thorburn, 19 years of Edmonton, was charged with Criminal Negligence in the operation of a motor vehicle resulting from erratic driving in the Forest Lawn area, Saturday, September 25, 1976.

The trial of Gregory John Alexander Zaharia has now been set for April 28. Zaharia was arrested on Friday, January 21, 1977 for possession of 420 grams of hashish.

About 600 young people and some adults like the group above participated in the annual Kinsmen Skate-a-thon Sunday and brought in about $18,000 in pledges. The effort by Roger's Esso Rebels hockey team was outstanding - they collected $1,600 in pledges. Among prominent skaters were Alderman Barry Breadner, Terry Jones, sports writer for the Edmonton Journal, Kinsmen President Ray Capowski and Kinsmen President Arlene Lemieux. The event began at 8 a.m., and finished at 6:30 p.m. Most of the proceeds will go for the new Kinsmen community service bus. Money can be turned in at any bank in St. Albert and the Kinsmen have set a deadline for March 18. Later on prizes will be awarded on the basis of money turned in.

month, based on experience in other centres.

Case one providing a paramedic director, four emergency vehicle operators and four paramedics and two vehicles, would cost an estimated $135,510 for annual operating costs, with an annual deficit of $111,660.

Case two involving a paramedic director, four emergency vehicle operators and four emergency medical technicians and two vehicles would have an annual operating cost of $123,630 and annual deficit of $97,280.

Case three in which the service would embrace the whole area covered by Sturgeon General Hospital, a third of which population would be out of St. Albert, would cost $127,330 annually with a deficit $111,130, assuming no transfers. Assuming that one-third population were to bear one-third of the cost, the fully paramedic service described in Case 1 would cost the user municipalities outside St. Albert a deficit of $37,170 annually. For Case 2 the deficit figure would be $32,543.

Mr. Byron pointed out that salaries are the main cost burden in setting up either the fully paramedic or the lesser paramedic service.

Mayor Plain pointed out that either service as described in Case 1 and 2 would fall within the $20 per year per householder figure. He also noted that MD Sturgeon is not interested in a paramedic service but is interested in a lesser delivery system.

AFFORDABLE SERVICE - SAFETY COUNCIL

Len Hobson, chairman of the St. Albert Safety Council was heard first. The Safety Council recommended a basic service staffed by St. John Ambulance personnel, with no paramedics and one vehicle and said their report was to be directed to a service we can afford. Council will have to assess what we can afford Mayor Plain said, pointing out that "there is only $14,000 difference between a fully paramedic service and your recommendation. Once we decide on $97,000, then $114,000 is not unaffordable," he said.

AID FROM MEDICINE HAT

The co-ordinator of the Medicine Hat service was next. That service has just been upgraded from private to paramedic and is operated out of the hospital. He wished to pass on to council the studies, figures and reports done in that city.

They have a garage, office space and dormitory area at the hospital and the ambulance staff are hospital employees, paid by the hospital. The service is subsidized by the city quarterly and the ambulance and regular hospital staff work together back and forth. They have three ambulances and one rescue car and respond also to calls in neighbouring rural districts, with five paramedics and four emergency vehicle operators. He recommended that St. Albert have a back-up system and continually upgrade their service. Ambulance service personnel conduct first aid courses and courses in cardiac-pulmonary revival for community groups, churches and schools and train fire department people. A radio and telephone communications system ties in with the hospital switchboard and emergency department. In response to questions on costs he said he would provide all such information to council.

NOT SECOND GRADE SERVICE PLEASE

Mrs. Rowe of Goodridge Drive spoke for a small group of citizens who support a paramedic service for saving lives, preventive aspects and social and family well being. They did not want to settle for a second grade service and suggested a phased in program.

ADVICE FROM MAYERTHORPE

Bob Langley of the Mayerthorpe service was present to give council the benefit of their experience. He felt one unit was not sufficient - Mayerthorpe now has three. He thought if St. Albert had three units and used the fire hall costs would remain about the same as for two units. Mr. Langley also had praise for emergency measures technicians, whom he said after completed the four grades of training will be qualified paramedics. "Paramedics do a good job, but Grande Prairie has hired and fired several due to the cost factor," he added. From the Mayerthorpe experience he thought St. Albert, once the service was known, would find they have to respond to calls from outlying districts. Insurance will help pay these costs he told council. They had a big deficit from people who wouldn't pay calls, but they respond to all calls.

Mrs. Sophia Hepburn celebrated her 101st birthday on Saturday, February 19th at the Youville Home with her family and friends. Her trust in God and her good health contributed to this fine lady's longevity and happiness.

COMBINE WITH FIRE PROTECTION SERVICE

Mr. Andrews presented in written form the position taken at the previous week's council meeting, favouring working the service with the fire department, thereby making an economic deployment of available manpower. He does not believe a full paramedic service is required, but agrees with a back-up vehicle, not equipped to quite the same extent.

DOCTORS URGE HOSPITAL SERVICE - CONTROL COSTS

Dr. H. E. Albrecht, chairman of the hospital-appointed committee to make recommendations to the general medical staff on ambulance service, noted that he had worked 10 years in the Medicine Hat ambulance service before it was upgraded, had been with Smith Ambulance for a time and a casualty officer in the University for a year. The Sturgeon Hospital was the only place from which a service should be operated in the committee's opinion and Dr. Albrecht thought the fire department idea was "ludicrous." He favoured starting with one ambulance and felt the impression that the service would be run off its feet was wrong. He doubted that there would be one call per day. While in Medicine Hat (when the population was 23,000) he said, there were sometimes three days at a time with no calls. Rather the recommendation of the doctors was a liaison with Smith Ambulance - one to do emergency only and the back-up unit could be a dispatcher for Smith, which would be felt to be more than adequate. The committee further recommended only one paramedic. He thought the ambulance people could be excellent hospital workers and hospital orderlies could help on ambulance calls. However it was brought out that the hospital administration did not agree that there was staff time available. Dr. Albrecht said if there were two ambulances and two paramedics rather than the one and one he recommended, and the cost would be not much more, that was fine. The doctors also wanted a 911 emergency telephone system for St. Albert and a communication liaison network with other ambulance services in the district.

CONTRACT PROPOSAL

A new privately owned ambulance service, Rescue Med Ambulance proposed a five-year contract service with one unit and one stand-by at a flat rate of $25 per hour, plus $1 per mile with transfers at $20 per trip and no subsidy. Council requested further information in written form.

ACT SOON

A resident of Morgan Crescent said he wanted an ambulance service as soon as possible. "Has anybody approached Smith to come in immediately?" he asked.

WE COULD MOVE IN QUICKLY - SMITH AMBULANCE

Mr. Jespersen of Smith Ambulance estimated one and a half transfer calls per day and a little less than one emergency call per day for the St. Albert service. "We would have to look at coming in here," he said. "It costs money to have people sitting here." He felt there would sometimes be three days with no trip to this area - a lot of idle time, and he said the service would be ideal from the hospital. In talking to Minister Miniely, Mr. Jespersen said there was a big change coming to locate ambulance service in hospitals in centres other than where there are several hospitals.

We would need an invitation first to come out here he went on, and we have done proposals for other towns neighbouring Edmonton who never thanked us or let us know. It is expensive - they said. If St. Albert wanted it, we have 14 vehicles and could move fairly quickly. A back-up would be provided and Mr. Jespersen said it would be needed in the country as well. We could handle calls to take people to various hospitals in Edmonton he added. He also said that the province is working on a communications network to tie in all over the province - for example a unit coming in from Slave Lake could notify the hospital here. Such a service is also needed for cases of ambulance breakdown he told council. Don't wait for the province to get this in before your service is set up he said. "Hades could freeze over" said Mayor Plain.

CO-OPERATE AND KEEP COSTS DOWN - TAXPAYER

A taxpayer wanted council to look at the cost factor and favoured Dr. Albrecht's suggestions. Council should get together with other concerned people he said, in Sturgeon etcetera and get an ambulance service. He felt a basic service would be sufficient. Or base it at the fire hall he said - those people have some basic training and the big cost is salaries. He also thought there would be a big cost difference between one and two ambulances. A volunteer service would not be adequate he said, Smith should provide the back-up service.

We feel a hospital service is best said Mr. Byron but the problem for council is to get the service as soon as possible. The taxpayer said council should co-operate with other municipalities and people and be ready to move to the hospital when the day comes.

As a taxpayer, if we can't resolve the problems with other jurisdictions said Mayor Plain, would you be willing to pay for the service in other municipalities? Yes replied the gentleman.

In response to a question as to whether one or two vehicles have been ordered - and surely we won't have a service before July, the mayor said it would be duplicity to ask for public input after action had been taken, and it would be some time before the service could be in operation.

Charter presented to new St. Albert Local

St. Albert Protestant Separate Local No. 73 came officially into existence on January 26 with the presentation of the charter by ATA provincial president Halvar Jonson.

The new local will include 216 teachers who were previously part of St. Albert Local 66.

In presenting the charter to local president Glen Reid, Mr. Jonson urged continued cooperation and communication of all locals with the provincial organization, because "we're all working toward the same goals."

Current restraint and pressure, he said, are causing teachers not to support the ATA as they should. He urged teachers too, to support their local leaders.

"Negative pressure is being put on people serving as local leaders and as provincial leaders of the ATA," he said. "But the job is as important as ever and still must be done."

The ATA president advised those attending the charter ceremony - the local executive and staff representatives - to become involved in meaningful in-service activities, and to "hang on to whatever elements of local bargaining that you can."

The new St. Albert local is the 77th local of the ATA.

St. Albert pioneer family photo shows Edmond Hector Brosseau and his sisters: Herrmine [Mrs. Brissette], at left or Mr. Brosseau; Eliza [Mrs. Smith] on his right; and Philomena [Mrs. John Green].

Funeral services held for young hockey players

Funeral services were held on Monday, February 21 for the two St. Albert hockey players who lost their lives in a traffic accident at 8:35 p.m. Thursday evening just south of the Morinville overpass. They were on their way to a hockey game in Morinville at the time and the driver of the other vehicle in the collision also lost his life.

Services for Dennis Reimer, 18 years, were held in the Chapel of Chimes at 1 p.m., and for Darrell Ness, 17, at St. Albert United Church at 2 p.m. Both services were attended by players, managers and coaches representing teams from the Northern Alberta Rural Juvenile Hockey League.

Reverend Leonard Musto officiated at the service for Darrell Ness. Pallbearers were young friends of Darrell, all of whom shared his interest in hockey: Gary Bokenfohr, Michael Mitchell, Guy Derieu, David Shipanoff, Murray Riddell and Danny Rouault. Interment followed in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Hockey players, coaches and managers from Redwater, Athabasca, Gibbons, Morinville and St. Albert were in attendance.

Darrell was born in Jasper Place on December 25th, 1959 and attended Sherwood School for two years before moving with his family to St. Albert in 1966. He attended school at Leo Nickerson, Sir Alexander Mackenzie, Lorne Akins and was completing his final year at Paul Kane at the time of his death.

From his early years he was a keen hockey player and developed into a fine forward and goalscorer. He also took power skating training and in summertime turned to his other favorite sport - golf. Darrell also enjoyed snowmobiling with his family.

For the past two summers he spent most of his vacation with his grandparents on a farm about 30 miles out of Saskatoon, and he had asked his grandfather never to sell his land.

Darrell was extremely well liked by his classmates and team-mates. He was a responsible hockey player, disliked violence in the game and might well have gone further in his hockey career had he not preferred to play for the fun of the game. Both Darrell and Dennis were leading scorers in their league and they played on the same line.

He is survived by his father and mother, one sister, Shelley, one brother, Lynn, his maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kowbel of Saskatoon; two aunts and one uncle, Sonja and Bob Jones of Regina and Miss Cindy Kowbel.

Joseph Brosseau comments on last week's article on Fleuri Perron

I am certain that the date mentioned in your article when Fleuri Perron and Cheri Hebert bought the general store from my grandfather Edmond Hector Brosseau, is not right. I have the information from my father, my Uncle Alphonse and my Uncle Jean Baptiste Brosseau who were raised in Saint Albert.

According to them I also had the date of sale which was at the end of 1898 or 1899. (The article noted the date as 1904).

My grandfather then went in partnership with J. H. Gariepy on the northwest corner of 100th Street and Jasper Avenue in 1900 under the name of Gariepy and Brosseau General Merchants. In the latter part of the year 1901 he sold his share to P. E. Lessard and went exploring for land by Vegreville and St. Paul. He finally settled at St. Paul des Cris which was one of Father Lacombe's first missions after St. Albert. He got it surveyed for a townsite in 1905.

I have a cassette tape when I had an interview with Uncle Alphonse two years before his death. After the railways were built through St. Paul and Two Hills Brosseau lost its importance as an important crossing.

Then a chemical plant was built in Duvernay and Brosseau became a ghost town as we say because most of the farmers around went to work at the plant.

Speech contest

The Sturgeon Toastmistress Club is staging its annual speech contest tonight at Paul Kane High School. The contest will begin about 8:30 after the regular business meeting and is open to the public. Three members will be competing and the winner will then be eligible to compete in the Council #6 speech contest being held March 12 in Edmonton.

The public is welcome to come along and hear the competition.

Services held for Neil Ross in St. Albert church

About 1,000 friends and relatives attended the mass of Resurrection for Neil McKinnon Ross on Saturday, February 19 in St. Albert Roman Catholic Church.

Father Jake Joly celebrated the mass, assisted by concelebrants Monseigneur Joseph Malone, who gave the homily, and Fathers Raymond Sevigny, G. MacInnes, Gerald Labonte, Ubald Duchesneau and Michael Troy. Beautiful music was provided by soloist Joan Day of Edmonton, Lillian Upright, St. Albert organist and piper David MacDougall of Edmonton.

The long centre aisle of the church was lined on either side with a 4th degree Knights of Columbus Guard of Honour from St. Joseph's Assembly, a St. Albert Lions Guard of Honour, the Honorary Pallbearers and the Pallbearers.

Honorary pallbearers were Judge John Cormack, Marcel Lambert, W. C. (Tubby) Bateman, Ernie Jamison, Bill Veness and Don Neiman. Pallbearers were Ernie Bell, Kenny Samis, John Barbeau, Vince Maloney, Fred Akins and Gene Perron.

The warm, human service was focused by Father Joly and Monseigneur Malone around the release of Mr. Ross into the hands of God and the company of the Saints, and Father Joly spoke of the wonderful outpouring of love and support for the Ross family that was in evidence at the service. Mr. Dave Fraser gave the scripture reading and Doug Ross, on behalf of the family, read a moving letter of farewell to a beloved and respected father.

Monseigneur Malone told of his long association with Neil and Sadie. He had married them and celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary mass in St. Albert. He spoke of Neil's concern and affection for his wife and family and of his service to the community, consoling the family with the thought that Neil's life was in reality uninterrupted from birth and was continuing on in his new home.

Following interment in the church cemetery, luncheon was served in the church hall by members of the Women's Institute, the Youville Auxiliary, the Lioness Club, St. Albert High teachers, and many friends of the family.

The son of Neil and Mary Ross, Neil was born in Edmonton on April 17, 1909. He moved with his family to a farm northwest of St. Albert in 1912. After completing his high school he enrolled in the engineering faculty at the University of Alberta, but did not complete the program, choosing instead to travel to California where he worked for a while at such jobs as were available.

Returning to Alberta he decided to get into business for himself and headed for Jasper where work on the Banff-Jasper highway was in progress. He got together 16 head of horses, wagons and sleighs and some men, and went to work, choosing to drive a big cat himself. Ross Trucking was born. After five years he came back to St. Albert and set up a trucking business hauling coal from the Samis mines, groceries to local stores and water. That was in 1935, lean years in Alberta, but with two trucks and one employee to help he kept going.

When the war broke out Mr. Ross began working for the Americans who were building the Alaska Highway. His trucks were in steady demand and there was lots of work in the years between 1945 and 1946.

Then it was back again to St. Albert and the oil patch at Redwater caught the businessman's eye. A contract with Texaco was the result, and for the next 20 years Ross's trucking followed the fortunes of Texaco and the trails led as far north as the arctic circle. Resourcefulness was often the name of the game on those long trips hauling pipe and supplies. One trip involved seven trucks and some 16 men in extremely bitter weather to set up rigs, camps, cook-houses - everything needed had to be packed up on the trucks, with no miscalculation allowed on the amount of fuel needed. The trucks were left running the whole time as failure to start in the cold would spell disaster. Neil and his foreman accompanied the caravan by car and then piggy-backed the car back on an empty truck.

The firm was greatly expanded during the years with Texaco and Ross Trucking offices were opened in Wetaskiwin, Red Deer, Swan Hills, Slave Lake and Manning, with headquarters in St. Albert.

When Mr. Ross retired in 1967 he had 60 trucks and upwards of 70 employees. In all those years he had been away a great deal of the time and retirement meant a great enjoyment of home life.

He married Sadie Stanton, a school teacher in St. Albert, on July 26, 1937 and the couple had six children. Home was always the house on St. Albert Road, but the house grew with the family, with a number of additions. The couple celebrated their 25th anniversary in St. Albert in 1962.

Mr. Ross was a member of the St. Albert Council, Knights of Columbus, and a 4th degree Knight with St. Joseph's Assembly; a member of the St. Albert Lions Club and a life member of the Order of Elks. He was an honorary life president of the St. Albert Progressive Conservative Association.

Public service included a term as Mayor of St. Albert and four years with the St. Albert School Board. After his retirement he and Sadie enjoyed the opportunity to travel and their circle of friends grew to include people from many distant countries.

Mr. Ross is survived by his wife Sadie, six children: Anne (Mrs. C. C. Smith), Cameron and Sheila, all of St. Albert, Douglas of Yellowknife, Dr. Neil John of St. Albert and Michael of Montreal; two sisters, Mrs. H. D. Armstrong of Edmonton and Alice of St. Albert; and three grandchildren, Heather, Maureen and Ross Smith.

He was predeceased by his parents and two brothers, Cameron and Colin.

information in regard to the program throughout the schools. The board passed a motion that the Summer School program be approved.

Trustees approved a written request for co-operation in obtaining a group of children from Grades 1 and 2 to do a study of the development of the concept of time in children. The board moved its approval on the condition of parental consent.

Mr. Howrsh reported that the Salary Committee report would be heard in committee. He also reported on the Finance Committee and the ASTA Zone 2 meeting last Friday. It was announced at that meeting that proposals from the association in regard to the use of the Alberta Heritage Trust Fund for education were being finalized.

Senior Citizens News

Instead of having a spring sale, members of the Senior Citizens Club have decided to hold a spring tea. It will be held on May 7 in the Centre. There will, however, be a few items for sale - a bake table and a plant table. So the ladies will be looking for contributions to both. Baked goods can be frozen and plants, both indoor and out, can be started now.

Last November the Club held a dance which proved to be a highlight of St. Albert's social season. Members will be happy to know that another is being planned and will take place on Friday, April 1. Tickets will be going on sale shortly. In the meantime, keep the date free.

Saturday, February 26, is the last Saturday of the month and therefore the day on which the "Almost New" Shop is open at the Centre from 1 - 4 p.m. Clothing to fit all sizes - babies, children and adults - will be for sale at very nominal prices.

The group of ladies who meet every Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. are continuing to meet and make articles in preparation for their next sale which will be held in the fall. Some are working on a quilt (which is coming along very nicely) and others knit, sew, crochet and make all kinds of articles. They will give a warm welcome to any ladies who feel like getting out and meeting people.

On Thursday at 1:15 p.m. after the lunch served at the Centre through the Meals-on-Wheels program, Ethel Cuts will hold an exercise session. These sessions are proving very popular. With Bertha Kennedy at the piano, exercising becomes fun and everyone goes at their own speed.

"Wheels to Meals" is a variation of the Meals on Wheels program. A limited number of lunches are delivered to the Centre every Thursday and any senior wishing to have an occasional lunch there should phone Hettie Blades at 459-4756 or Pat Gray at 459-7476.

Paul Kane Open House will focus on work experience

Open House at Paul Kane High School on Wednesday, March 2nd will focus on the school's Work Experience Program.

An opportunity will be provided for students and parents to learn more about this rather new program, and how it can serve the students in career decision making. Information on how the program can overlap with future career placement will also be presented.

A Work Experience Information Centre will be set up in Business Education Room D, to be open to the public from 11:30 in the morning until one o'clock, and an evening session has been arranged from 7 - 9 p.m.

Representatives of students who have been on the program and people from the Apprenticeship Training Board and the Canadian Armed Forces will also be in attendance to answer questions on the present program and their relationship to it, as well as innovative changes being proposed for the future.

Two films, Park Your Own Chute and Career Decision Making will be shown at time periods throughout the Open House program.

Wheels in motion for May Trade Fair

Pat Hauptman of Sweetheart Jewellery and Garry Hodgins of St. Albert Tire are in charge of booth sales for this year's Community Trade Fair, being held May 13 - 15 in the Arena.

Information and regulations for exhibitors have been made available this week to local businessmen, and space will be assigned on a first come, first served basis.

10' x 10' booths are available at $170 and corner exhibit space is at $180. Non-commercial exhibit space is available at $35 for each booth. An "Early Bird" discount is available this year of $20 per booth for deposits on contracts received by March 10 for commercial space.

Maximum admission will be 50¢ per person to a maximum of $1 per family and Roger Montpetit of Sturgeon Electrical Supplies has a plan which may get admission even lower.

This will be the second Community Trade Fair sponsored by the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce to display the St. Albert business community, its services and wares. Emphasis is being placed this year to make the fair a "come and meet your neighbor" affair.

Air Cadets in Review St. Albert R.C.A. C. Squadron No. 533

By Cpl. Mike Parkin

This week I am able to write about several happenings within the squadron.

First of all, promotions for two of the squadron's officers have come through. Lt. G. Martin has been promoted to Captain and Capt. F. A. Maybee has been promoted to Major.

Secondly, Thursday, February 24, 1977, is the 10th anniversary of the formation of the 533 squadron marching band. Centennial year was the year in which the squadron band was formed. Records pertaining to the size of the band, number of instruments etc., are not available. However, the band is now at a very high standard of accomplishment and moving ever on. The drum major at the present time is Sgt. K. Fecteau, who took over the reins from Sgt. M. Fabi at the start of September, last year. The band consists of 11 trumpeters, two bass drummers, 10 snare drummers, two glockenspiel players, two cymbalists and the drum major.

At the start of September of last year, approximately 50 percent of the squadron band was brand new to the world of music, along with the drum major being brand new, although he had previously been a member of the band.

Nevertheless, the squadron band is one that our squadron can be very proud of. They play very well and are ever improving. Congratulations!!

The squadron has also secured use of the Simpson Junior High gymnasium for preparation for Zone sports competitions. We are able to use the gym Tuesday evenings from 8 to 10 p.m. As I understand, we will be working almost entirely on volleyball, as our squadron is notorious for losing a volleyball game by two points, or a very slim margin such as that.

Dates for the Zone Sports and Drill Competitions have been passed on to me. Zone competitions are to be held April 30 and May 1 at Griesbach, and the provincial competitions are to be held June 4, at Prince of Wales Armouries and Victoria Composite High School.

Book early for Mall Space

Booth space on the Grandin Shoppers Park Mall is available for the projects of local residents and organizations. Manager Gerry Belke advises however that quite often the space is not booked early enough.

"Right now we are booked about two months ahead," said Mr. Belke. He tries to help out local groups if at all possible, and Edmonton groups also try to use space on the mall quite often.

So the message is clear to St. Albertans: if the mall booth can be of service, book early. Mr. Belke added that advise by letter is preferred.

"Almost new" shop

The "Almost New" Shop, run by the St. Albert Senior Citizens Club in the Centre (north of the curling rink) will be open on Saturday, February 26 from 1 - 4 p.m. (It operates on the last Saturday of each month).

This is entirely a club project and is truly a service in a community where there is an unusually large number of young children. Of course, there are not only children's clothes. There are ladies dresses, men's suits, shoes, boots, fur coats etc., and all in wearable condition.

So drop in on Saturday afternoon. The prices are low and you'll be doing yourself and the Seniors a good turn. All proceeds go towards the operation of the Centre and club activities.

Around Town

Latest report on city status changes is that school boards will no longer qualify for provincial grants to bus kindergarten children. That is a rural grant program and

St. Albert under city status becomes an urban area and will not qualify. Cost this year to District 6 school board will be about $40,000.

A tribute to Neil

I would like to use your columns to pen a brief tribute to a friend and neighbour whose recent passing has brought a feeling of personal loss to so many in this community. I refer to Neil Ross, one of a shrinking group of 'old timers' who spent their active lives in and for St. Albert. It is not my purpose here to list the many organizations and activities in which Neil took an active part; that has been done already by others better qualified to do so; but I would like to put on record my own regret at losing a personal friend, and whose presence in the community was an influence for good in every area that he undertook. The part Neil played in Church, in School and in local government, has been a long record of worthy endeavour and solid accomplishment which we who knew him will not forget.

I first met Neil in the 'dirty thirties', when we were both struggling to get established and I have always felt a great personal satisfaction in the success that came to him later, through his hard work and fair dealing.

I am sure we all feel deep sympathy for his wife Sadie and all the Ross family.

Signals that spell danger should alert homeowners to danger of fire

By Deputy Fire Chief
Fred Tetarenko

Malfunction which can cause excessive overheating or even damaging fires can occur in any home electrical system.

Although the incidence of problems is greater where certain combinations of aluminum wire, devices and workmanship have been used, defects in copper wiring installations also can have serious consequences.

Sometimes damage happens without apparent warning. But frequently there are early signals which can alert the homeowner that trouble is on the way.

Among the most common danger signs are the following situations, any of which warrants immediate investigation by a qualified contractor or electrician.

Persistent blinking or flickering of lights which cannot be traced to use of appliances or to other external causes.

Switchplates or wall outlets which are warm or hot to the touch, unusually warm walls near electrical outlets.

Outlets or switches which are inoperative (those which are not energized).

Unusual or burning odors, particularly near electrical outlets or switchplates.

Discoloration, charring or melting of outlets, switches or their components.

Sparking or electrical arcing.

Persistent and unexplained static in radio receivers.

"Snow" in the television picture or a shrinking in the size of the television picture.

A blown fuse or tripped circuit breaker. This is an obvious warning, as is the presence of any fire or smoke.

At the first sign of trouble, the utility should be shut off. Under no circumstances should anyone except a qualified contractor or electrician attempt to make repairs.

Learn not to burn.

OTTAWA and Small Business

The Apple Juice Cure

by JIM SMITH

Canadians, as you've probably noticed, are funny people. While the Americans, the British, the Russians and even, presumably, the Patagonians have cultivated a national sense of pride and achievement, Canadians have specialized in self-effacement.

Canadian entertainers, Canadian writers, Canadian scientists, Canadian athletes, and Canadian politicians can, almost without exception, find more interest in their work and achievements from outside Canada than they find here at home. We get a bigger thrill out of importing our culture, our technology, and our economics than we get from creating our own.

Nonetheless, there are occasions when Canadians are responsible for notable achievements. And, whenever this happens, we should take note of the fact, puff out our breasts, and indulge in some hearty, congratulatory back-slapping.

As it happens, Canadians are now well on the way to setting new standards in unproductiveness. For many years, our costs - primarily wages - have been increasing much more rapidly than our productivity. Now, according to the Canadian Federation of Independent Business, Canadian industry is as much as 37 per cent less efficient than similar industry in the United States.

The implications of that figure are grave. In the simplest terms, our higher wages and lower productivity mean that the Canadian dollar should be trading at only 60 or 70 cents in terms of the American dollar. Only our consistently high level of resource exports and foreign borrowing have kept the two dollars close to par.

But what happens when our resources and international credit rating run out? Already, we've exhausted our export capacity in petroleum. Ultimately, our other non-renewable resources must become exhausted, too.

The challenge of the future for Canadians will be learning to live better with less. A conserving society must be developed to replace our present wasteful consumer society. Canada can't afford to constantly expand the ranks of the unemployed, forcing those looking for work to do our national conserving for us.

Now for the good news. Learning to live within our means shouldn't be as difficult as might be imagined. For example, Canada, one of the world's major agricultural powers, is a net importer of food! We could easily - and profitably - increase our output of food and drastically reduce our imports. Canadians can learn to vacation in Canada rather than abroad. Or we can learn to conserve our limited resources.

The key to a better tomorrow may well be a Canadian society that drinks apple juice rather than orange juice while vacationing in New Brunswick rather than Florida.

What Caught Our Eye

Donne Villanyi of St. Albert sent along this item which caught her eye in the January 18th issue of the National Enquirer:

WHO'LL CAST THE FIRST STONE?

We read in the papers and hear on the air of killing and stealing and crime everywhere.
 We sigh and say, as we notice the trend. "This young generation - where will it all end?"
 But can we be sure that it's their fault alone, that maybe a part of it isn't our own?
 Are we less guilt, who place in their way too many things that lead them astray?
 Too much money, too much idle time, too many movies of passion and crime;
 Too many books not fit to read, too much evil in what they hear said;
 Too many children encouraged to roam, too many parents who won't stay home.
 Kids don't make the movies, they don't write the books; they don't paint gay pictures of gangsters and crooks;
 They don't make the liquor, they don't run the bars, they don't make the laws and they don't sell the cars;
 They don't peddle the drugs that addle the brain - that's all done by older folks, greedy for gain.
 Delinquent teenagers. Oh, how we condemn the sins of the nation and blame it on them;
 By the laws of the blameless the Saviour made known - who is there among us to cast the first stone? -
 For in so many cases, it's sad, but it's true, the title DELINQUENT fits older folks, too!

HOW MUCH IS THAT SPIDER IN THE WINDOW?

From 'The Albertan'

"Eye of newt and toe of frog, Wool of bat and tongue of dog."

Every year, more and more city dwellers are being turned off by the standard adorable pet and are buying unusual, off-beat animals - or at least they're trying to.

Dave England, wildlife enforcement officer at the Department of Fish and Wildlife, says requests for permits for odd pets are skyrocketing.

"The hottest pets on request now are llamas," said England.

"We get all kinds of people phoning in for permits to own a pet llama." "For the life of me I don't know why," he said.

"Maybe its their wool they want."

It's not legal to keep a llama in captivity for private use but you can import them into the country.

"We get all kinds that call us," said England. "If we don't give them the answer they want, they just hang up."

England says skunks are becoming very popular as well.

"You wouldn't believe the number of people who want to keep skunks as pets."

"They make a great pet but they're not legal to keep either," he said.

According to Calgary's zoo director, Peter Karsten, it is illegal to keep native animals of Alberta in captivity unless you have a game farm license.

There are however, some unusual pets that can be purchased legally from pet stores here in town.

Pat Wes, proud owner of three underwater frogs and several newts says they're just great novelties to have around the house.

"The frogs are kept with my tropical fish and look like little frog men swimming around the tank," he said.

Pet spiders, especially the Arizona tarantula, are now stocked in some exotic pet shops in Calgary.

The female spider grows up to six inches in length and lives for 25 years. The smaller and much weaker male has a shorter life span. It is common for her to kill the male after they mate.

If an eight-legged, full grown female spider were to escape out of its glass terrarium and bite the pet chihuahua, the dog would die.

One Calgary pet store that sells boa-constrictors said, "we can't keep enough of them in stock, the demand is so high."

Those who have overcome their squeamishness for newts, frogs, spiders and snakes will have no trouble in laying out a banquet for them.

The entrees are mule worms, maggots, grass-hoppers, crickets ...

ST. ALBERT LIBRARY BOARD, IN CO-OPERATION WITH THE LEGAL RESOURCE CENTRE, WILL PRESENT TALKS ON THE LAW, BEGINNING AT 7:30, MARCH 1ST.

Bill to be made legally binding

The federal legislation protecting human rights has long been of the "paper tiger" variety, consisting of the Canadian Bill of Rights, a document having no powers of enforcement. The bill prohibited discrimination on a basis of race, national origin, color, religion or sex, but was not legally binding.

As of November 29, 1976, however, this began to change when the long-awaited legislation to protect human rights was given first reading in the House of Commons.

The new legislation, Bill C-25, contains three major aspects. An anti-discrimination code applies to those persons, agencies, institutions and corporations coming within federal jurisdiction, such as banks, airlines, insurance and telephone companies. Also included is a provision granting individuals access to government files on themselves, and an outlawing of the recording and transmission of hate messages over federally-regulated telephone systems.

The anti-discrimination code defines a prohibited ground of discrimination as one based on race, national or ethnic origin, color, religion, sex, age, marital status, physical handicap and a conviction for which a pardon has been granted. This code will apply to all federally-regulated organizations in relation to the following activities: employment, pay and promotions and their advertisement; provision of services, facilities or accommodation generally available to the public and the provision of commercial or residential accommodation.

To the delight of women, it will be a discriminatory practice to differentiate in wages between men and women performing work of equal value. The bill says the value of work performed will be assessed by the skill, effort and responsibility required to do the work and the conditions in which the work is performed.

HATE MESSAGES

The bill would also provide that any person or group engaging in a hate campaign by telephone would be subject to a cease and desist order, with failure to comply becoming grounds for a contempt of court charge carrying a penalty of up to one year in jail or a fine not exceeding $5,000.

To enforce this legislation, a Human Rights Commission of between five and eight appointed members would be established, independent of government, responsible only to Parliament. Removal of a member would require an address of the Senate and the Commons. The commission would be empowered to investigate and initiate complaints and to appoint expert tribunals to adjudicate in anti-discrimination cases. These tribunals could issue enforceable orders, failure to comply with which could result in contempt of court. The commission could also conduct public education and would submit an annual report to Parliament.

PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

The new bill would grant the right of access to individuals in regard to personal information contained in government records, and would allow them the right of correction as well as control over the government's use of such information. One of the Human Rights Commissioners would be a Privacy Commissioner to perform an ombudsman-like role with wide powers to investigate any complaint from those who felt their rights to privacy as laid out under the bill were being denied.

Consumers discuss aluminum wiring

Aluminum and copper wiring should both be recognized for household wiring according to the Canadian Standards Association (CSA) Consumer Advisory Panel. The consumer group met in Toronto on January 18 to discuss household wiring and generally agreed with CSA's standards which recognize both aluminum and copper wire.

CONTROVERSIAL

Aluminum wire has been a controversial issue over the past three years with many groups calling for a ban. It has been used for over 12 years in houses and there are about a half million Canadian homes wired with aluminum.

"Although many of the panel members were not satisfied with aluminum wire for various reasons, the majority agreed with the means chosen by CSA's committees, to accommodate aluminum wire," explains Peter James, CSA spokesman. "They also felt there should be more information and instructions on electrical devices being sold in stores."

The Consumer Panel recommended that all homes be furnished with a wiring diagram along with information on the use of the wiring system. The Panel thought all homes should contain instruction manuals on the safe use of the electrical system. The group passed a resolution endorsing enforcement that adequate information be printed on fuse panels and circuit breakers. This information should tell consumers what circuits the fuses or circuit breakers pertain to. Although this is a requirement in the Canadian Electrical Code, the Consumer Panel felt that it is not being strictly enforced.

"The Panel also thought that the public should become more aware of CO/ALR (Copper and aluminum revised) receptacles and unanimously passed a motion calling on CSA, Ontario Hydro and other utilities and the federal Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs to carry out a national publicity campaign to promote the use of CO/ALR with aluminum wire," says Mr. James.

Two years ago, CSA required that only CO/ALR receptacles be used with aluminum. The Consumer Advisory Panel is a group of 50 consumers, from all walks of life, that meet regularly and comment on CSA standards. Their recommendations are referred to CSA technical committees for consideration.

Mohawks are an active pack of Cubs

The Mohawk Cub Pack (5th St. Albert) are better than halfway through a year crammed with activity. Their basic programs in the Cub training, under which they work to complete the skills to the level required for badges, is supplemented by one tour each month to broaden their education and add to their enjoyment of being a "Mohawk."

In January, under the guidance of Lt. R. Burns and Sgt. Cox they had a look at helicopters and other aircraft at the Canadian Forces Base Namao.

Last week their leader, Don Corrigan, who is also City engineer, introduced them to our water and sewer system, a system which perhaps many adults are not too familiar with. In September a visit to the Antique Railroaders Club was an interesting look back in time, and in December they saw a re-creation of the Bethlehem sky at the Planetarium. The Cubs have also visited the CBC television studios in Edmonton and Arlene Borgstede guided them through the St. Albert museum where they learned about their community's beginnings. Coming up is a tour of the weather station at the Industrial Airport.

The Mohawks have a fine record in the area of religious instruction and are sponsored by the Evangelical Lutheran Church. Seven of the pack members will receive their special badge for religious instruction at the Church Parade and Thinking Day program on Sunday at the St. Albert Roman Catholic Church.

FEBRUARY 26 IS THE BIG CUB CAR RALLY DAY

Winter Camp is on the agenda for March when they will be adding to their outdoor training at Nakamun Lake, west of Morinville, where they have the use of a good lodge facility. Summer camp this year will be at Hastings Lake.

Clearly a lot of good work is being accomplished by the boys of the Mohawk pack and their leader and three assistant leaders, as evidenced by the excellent attendance record of the young fellows.

Local residents head New Alberta Investment Firm

Houston Willoughby of Alberta Limited was licensed as an Investment Dealer by the Alberta Securities Commission in December and officially began its operations in January of this year.

The firm is operating from new offices in the Toronto Dominion Tower, Edmonton Centre. The company's president, Scott McCreath, and vice-president, Dennis Mulvihill, are both St. Albert residents.

This new company is the first investment dealer in recent history to establish its head office in Edmonton. Its affiliate, Houston Willoughby Limited, has been part of the Saskatchewan investment scene since 1925 and currently services 8000 city and rural clients from offices in Regina and Saskatoon.

As a regional investment dealer it is Houston Willoughby of Alberta's intention to build a team of professionals that will offer local Alberta communities investment dealer and investment banking services that are frequently handled by firms that have their head office exterior to the province.

The main core of the firm's business will be common and preferred shares, bonds, debentures, trust company certificates, and Canada Savings Bonds. They also have the capacity to do small pension fund management and tax deferred investing. In addition, through an affiliation with two sister companies, the new Canadian Commercial and Industrial Bank and Morguard Trust Company, Houston Willoughby is in a position to provide clients with mortgage and bank financing.

Mr. McCreath, a native of Calgary, was raised in Saskatoon and prior to joining Houston Willoughby was employed in Toronto and then Edmonton by A. E. Ames and Co., one of Canada's oldest investment firms.

Mr. Mulvihill's background has been with the Royal

Trust Company, portfolio management division, in Toronto and more recently with Houston Willoughby in Regina.

Concerning Women Of Today's World

Labels tell the story to help consumers

The label on a product is an important means of communication between a manufacturer and consumers. Labels should say everything that needs to be said ... answer all the questions a buyer may have.

MANDATORY LABELLING

Consumer Packaging and Labelling Act - This is a completely new law. It ensures that: prepackaged consumer products are accurately labelled as to contents, net quantity, etc., containers are standardized when there is an unnecessary number of sizes in use which may confuse buyers; misleading or fraudulent practices in packaging and labelling are eliminated; consumers are protected against fraud. Its regulations went into full effect September 1st, 1975 for non-food items and March 1, 1976 for food items.

Hazardous Products Act - Under this law, household chemical products must carry labels with both symbols and words to warn of their potential dangers, such as: "poison," "flammable," "explosive," or "corrosive." Be concerned! Over 49,000 Canadian children swallow poison each year. Read labels.

FOOD & DRUG ACT

This law is administered jointly by Health and Welfare Canada and the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs. As of March 1, 1976, perishable foods such as milk or meat carry a "best before" date to tell consumers when these products are at their best. Also the ingredients of all foods will have to be listed on labels.

Textile Act - This act requires manufacturers to put labels on most articles made from fabrics. The labels will: name the fibres contained in the fabric by their family or generic names, show the amount of each fibre in the product by percentages, indicate the country of origin - if labelled "imported," and identify the dealer for whom or by whom the articles was made, by name and address or an identification number.

If only a number is used, you may obtain the dealer's name and address by writing to: The Consumer, Box 99, Ottawa/Hull, Canada, K1N 8P9, or to any of the department's regional offices.

VOLUNTEER LABELLING

Canada Standard Size Program - These sizes are based on body measurements and not on the child's age. Parents need their children's measurements in order to buy the CSS size which will fit the best. Garments carrying CSS labels are standardized so any one size is the same regardless of manufacturer. KNOW YOUR CHILD'S MEASUREMENTS AND ASK FOR CSS SIZES.

CARE OF FABRICS

These labels tell you need to know about how to take care of the articles you buy that are made from fabrics. A set of five symbols has been developed for washing, bleaching, drying, ironing and dry cleaning. They use the traffic light colour system - RED means STOP or DON'T, AMBER means proceed with CAUTION. GREEN means GO AHEAD - to make it easy to understand what each symbol means. It's that simple. Manufacturers are encouraged to use these care symbols on permanently attached labels.

Benefit fashion show to aid mature students

The University Women's Club of Edmonton was organized in 1910 - two years after the establishment of the University of Alberta and five years after the birth of the province itself. Throughout its 66 years, its aim has been to assist women in educational endeavours.

In 1971 a bursary was offered to encourage part-time mature women to return to University. From applications received, the serious plight of many single-parent women was made clearly evident. Attempting to help those students who had an urgent need of obtaining more education under extremely difficult circumstances, the Club has since undertaken fund-raising projects and approached Edmonton individuals and organizations for donations.

Effective 1974, University students became ineligible to receive Social Assistance. Thus an additional burden of financing loans was placed on students.

During the past year, in response to awareness of economic needs existing among mature male students, the Club offered bursaries to both sexes.

To date, the University Women's Club has administered a total of $25,000 to 100 mature students attending the University of Alberta.

The University Women's Club of Edmonton is sponsoring two fashion shows Monday, February 28 - 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. at the Mayfield Inn. Vernis McCuaig of Peggi Adams will commentate fashions from Image Ladies Wear, Inside-Out and Trute Perfect Furriers. Tickets $3 (includes coffee and door prizes) available from Mrs. Margaret Skelley at 436-6851, at the door and at participating stores.

The University of Alberta Women's Club of Edmonton are sponsoring a fashion show on February 28 to assist them in raising funds for their mature student's bursary fund. Two shows, one at 2 p.m. and the other at 8 p.m. will be held at the Mayfield Inn.

The Cat's Pyjamas - big show coming

They're the cat's pyjamas! Finicky, independent and fiercely proud. And they come from every stalk of life: Burma and the Himalayas, back alleys and front porches, undergoot and straight into everybody's heart!

And who might these celebrities be? Why, that finicky animal the Cat, of course! And they'll all be "putting on the style" for you at the Edmonton Cat Fanciers Cat Show at the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium on March 19 and 20.

"They'll be there by the dozens. More than 200 entries are expected, representing 19 different breeds and that old show-stealer, the Household Pet," said Publicity Chairman, Clive Carter of St. Albert. "And each and every one is a winner."

Winners there will be. For this year, along with the traditional awards, the club will present the Morris Award to the Best Household Pet in Show. The award is named in honour of Morris, that finicky feline, star of T.V. commercials and the movie screen.

Although the Supercat Morris has padded his way to fame and fortune, his background is not unlike many of his fellow alley cats - or Household Pets as they are more suitably called! Once an abandoned tom cat, Morris found his way to an animal shelter where he was slated for a permanent catnap. Poor Morris! Eight lives already gone and number nine looked like ending in the Big Sleep.

When lo and behold, a well known animal handler saw Morris and judged that he was just right for stardom and has since made many commercials and a full length movie with Burt Reynolds.

Why not give the star of your living room a chance to show off. He might just slink off with the biggest award of them all. Now, wouldn't that be Purr-fectly lovely.

A kiddies' Cat Show will also be held on the second day of the show. All entries close on February 25. For information, phone the show entry clerk, Mrs. Doreen Nellis at 476-5825.

Bringing Alberta Art to Alberta

Reacting to the needs of artists (and art lovers), Miller Communication, a small advertising agency, has opened a division called Alberta Fine Arts Placement Service.

This service intends to coordinate local artists who wish to sell their works, with retailers wishing to carry their works, and ultimately with the public who wish to buy their works.

To date a number of good Albertan artists have registered with the service. Among them are: oil painters, poets, creative photographers, a carpenter who makes dolls furniture, people doing handicrafts and many more. Only last Friday the first placements of work were accomplished, one of the transactions with the Edmonton Art Gallery.

Elaine Miller, manager of the placement service, believes there will be a great demand for local art once the public realizes what high quality work is being produced by these Albertans.

Elaine runs Alberta Fine Arts Placement Service out of the parent company (Miller Communication) office of 9010 - 153 St., Edmonton.

The service should not only encourage present artists to pursue their field, but also give hope to the many potentially good artists who might otherwise become discouraged. The problem artists face is the lack of a facility through which they may present their work to the public.

With the help of local retailers, the Alberta Fine Arts Placement Service plans to become that facility.

Voice of V.J.M.

By Liane Lynch
Well another school week is underway and everybody is buzzing around getting ready for the mid-terms coming up on February 25 and 28. The religion test (except grade nines), Language arts, and mathematic exams will be held on the 25th and social studies, science, health tests will be on the 28th.

Our basketball teams should be congratulated. Camilla, Onoway, Morinville and St. Albert competed in a tournament held at Vanier School in Morinville. The boys won three games out of three, making them the champions. Unfortunately the girls didn't do as well, winning only one game out of the three, but they still gave it a good try. The coaches should also be congratulated.

The girls of VJM really enjoyed themselves this February 14. We held a King of Hearts contest. This is where all the girls in the school were each given a heart, then the boys would try to win their hearts by doing good deeds, opening doors, treating them extra nice, some even went as far as writing love poems. At the end of the day, the boy with the most hearts was crowned, but unfortunately when the day came to an end we had TWO winners. Naturally we had to decide on one King so we did it the democratic way, a peanut rolling contest. The two guys had to push a peanut across the gymnasium floor. Marc Durand came up the winner. Congratulations Marc.

Today being Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Share Lent and the beginning of our Share Lent project. We are hoping to have a talent night and a starve-a-thon, but it is not yet confirmed but we can count on it being a success. I guess it is because our school spirit is very good this year.

Our school newspaper is finally completed and copies will be out in a couple of weeks. The grade sevens took a skiing trip to Jasper and it seems as if everybody had fun.

Our phys. ed. classes have started something new. Gymnastics. Not too many people are overly thrilled with the idea but we are getting along.

Not too much has really happened lately, but keep the school spirit up.

Paul Kane News

By Carolyn Seitz
Well, it unfortunately seems that Spring is here to bore us to death permanently enough, at least until it manages to fade into a still more enervating summer. I seem to recall saying much the same thing in my last article but perhaps repetitive gripping will do where pleading to Old Man winter fails. Besides the fact that this vastly unwelcome weather threatens to carry us to drought and grain shortage, it also plays havoc with the ski hills. Yet another ski trip has been cancelled, this time apparently because of lack of student faith in snow rather than an actual lack of snow itself; ski hills are still gamely judged fair to good in carefully optimistic voices. These reports, though not endorsed by all, are upheld by those who have convinced themselves that faith precedes actual fact. In truth too, Jasper is supposed to be in 'surprisingly good condition, and may it only stay that way. Here at home, however, ski club members are still trying to wring a last few runs out of Lake Eden, and if the falls land a bit harder and skis need a blade more than wax, I guess we'll have to make the best of it and hope all the native Floridians are enjoying their sun vacations in balmy and tropical Edmonton. Despite the discouraging conditions here, though, a lot of us are attempting to trip to Whitefish, Montana during the Spring break, March 27 - April 1. The cost of the five day trip is $139.00 with a $60 down payment which should be paid sometime this week. Paul Kane and all its entourage would like to thank Caryn Duncan who, with co-workers, took on tremendous responsibility during the recently-departed Avalanche.

Next on the P.K. agenda is Education Day, March 2. Various speakers from different professions and/or vocations are coming to speak on topics such as Shakespeare, Yoga, Journalism, Dog Training, Sociology, Driver's Ed., and Cross Country skiing. Each student will have the time to attend three different sessions before the 2:00 final bell. We were all handed out sheets today on which to indicate our choices for the day's entertainment. It should prove both educational (a plus from the teacher's viewpoint) and interesting (a relief from the student's viewpoint).

St. Albert High School Education Week Activities

By Joanne Reinbold
Education Week can be and should be a time for re-emphasis; a time for reinforcement of existing ideas. The occasion offers the general public an opportunity to become involved in the educational process and it presents an occasion for schools to move instruction out of the classroom and into everyday life.

In keeping with these ideas St. Albert High is planning three activities to celebrate Education Week. Throughout the entire week of March 7-11 parents are invited to come and "sit-in" on classes at the High School. The staff is hoping that this open invitation will encourage parents to investigate the educational process and discover how it operates.

Parents and students can learn the joy of giving by joining in an evening of fun as the High School opens its doors to "Gold Rush" activities. March 8 transforms St. Albert High from a modern institute of learning into a swinging klondike village. The proceeds from this night of fun and laughter are given to the Share Lent fund.

Perhaps the biggest step in moving education from the classroom will be taken on March 10 when the students and staff will spend an entire day listening and learning about various careers. "Careers Day" will allow students to hear and question speakers representing many occupations, and hopefully this day will help the undecided make a decision about the future.

These three activities then will be the contribution of staff and students from St. Albert High to Education Week 1977. Come visit our school.

Starv-a-thon, then breakfast at Father Jan

Father Jan School was the scene of considerable activity on Monday night, February 21 as 50 students of Grades 6, 7 and 8 gathered overnight at the school for their share-lent starv-a-thon. The students participated in a number of activities during their fast, including the setting up of tables for the annual Pancake Breakfast held the next morning, February 22. A book sale was held by Grade 4 and 5 students at the breakfast.

One other share-lent activity will be staged at the school on March 25, when students of Grades 1, 2 and 3 hold a popcorn and candy sale during a feature length film. Parents are invited to attend this event.

The proceeds from the share-lent events will be offered to the parish at a school mass on March 21.

Trustees seek ideas on Heritage Fund use

The Alberta School Trustees Association is seeking a consensus or suggestions from its member boards on ways that some of the Alberta Heritage Savings Trust Fund could be profitably spent on education.

The association is conducting a survey of boards at the suggestion of the government and seeks proposals that would provide long-lasting educational benefit to future Alberta students.

Proposals to be accepted must not recommend application of fund money to current operating costs. Ventures of a capital nature, which would endure and continue to be of benefit to school boards will be considered desirable.

Upon return of the questionnaires, ASTA will return the most promising of these to the government.

Valentine dance at Youville Home

The residents of the Youville Home greatly enjoyed a valentine dance put on for them by the Youville Auxiliary. The auditorium was tastefully decorated in valentine motifs, and the residents assembled there early, ready and eager for the festivities to begin.

Once again Danny Boisvert's orchestra with his daughter Marianne at the piano, son Robert as guitarist, Danny on the violin and daughter Yvonne doing her share as vocalist, provided the brand of dance music popular with the Goldagers of the Home. And again Armand Savoie proved his super ability as emcee for the evening. His brother Ed? - Well, yes, he too, was present and kept everyone chuckling with his clowning. In keeping with the valentine theme, he wore a large red heart on the back of his shirt which he reversed to the front from time to time - just for a change!

Mr. J. P. Roy brought along his tiny accordion type music box and at one of the intermissions he, with Danny Boisvert on the guitar, produced some really lively music which prompted one of the out of town visitors and his daughter to get up and demonstrate some very fast footwork!

There were quite a number of "spot dances" and prizes galore, also a wheelchair dance to the strains of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" which greatly pleased the handicapped residents. Mr. Tony Deschenes, as popular guest vocalist, sang two French numbers: "A la Claire Fontaine" and "Bonhomme, Bonhomme," both action songs. Ed was extra busy here, especially in the second number where he pantomimed the motions for the violin, the flute, drums and other instruments mentioned in the song. Marianne and Yvonne then sang two English numbers for the enjoyment of the audience.

At the second intermission, a raffle took place. Mr. Albert Cyre, Grand Knight of the St. Albert K.C. Council, who honoured us by attending the dance, made the first draw. Mr. Robert Byers of St. Albert was the lucky winner of a handmade quilt. The second prize of a valentine box of chocolates was won by Mrs. Clara Dolhagaray, a resident of the Youville Home. The door prize, also a valentine box of chocolates, was won by Mrs. Robert, she, too of the Home.

Then came a surprise for the Knights of Columbus! The Auxiliary together with the Youville residents owe much to these fine gentlemen who give of themselves so unselfishly. In recognition of their many kindnesses a beautifully engraved plaque was presented them. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sevigny, a respected and well loved couple retired and living at the Home, were called upon to make this presentation. Armand Savoie accepted on behalf of the St. Albert KCs and expressed his thanks at this thoughtful gesture of appreciation. At this point Ed couldn't resist taking the mike and proclaiming "We'll Come Again!"

All too soon the last dance of the evening was announced. Tables were set up and cake and coffee served to end this happy event, everyone declaring they had enjoyed every minute of it.

The Auxiliary members extend deepest thanks to Danny and his band, Armand Savoie, Ed Savoie, J. P. Roy, Tony Deschenes, Albert Cyre and all who made this valentine "do" the success it was.

World Friendship Fund

- guide pennies for Guide thoughts

"A penny for your thoughts." In all probability, this expression means more to a Girl Guide than to anyone else. Particularly on February 22. In 1926, the first "Thinking Day" was celebrated on February 22, to honour the joint birthday of Lord Baden-Powell, Founder of Scouting and Guiding, and Lady Baden-Powell, the World Chief Guide. Since that time, Girl Guides and Girl Scouts around the world have continued to set aside that date as a time to consider their sisters in Guiding in the 94 countries which make up the World Association.

What's a birthday without presents? In 1932, a Belgian Guider proposed that if each Brownie, Guide, Ranger, Cadet and Guider would give a 'Thinking Day' penny, a large sum would be collected to support Guiding. This was the humble beginning of "The World Friendship Fund" as it is known today. The money is used in many ways to help Guiding: the purchase of uniforms for Guides in underdeveloped countries, travel grants to help Guides and Guiders to visit other countries and participate in International Events and support for the four Girl Guide and Girl Scout World Centres in Mexico, Switzerland, India and England. The fund is also used to help in time of emergencies when famine, flood, or earthquake strike sister countries.

"A penny for your thoughts" goes a long way with the Girl Guides and Girl Scouts - all the way around the world in fact.

GUIDING IN 94 COUNTRIES

Girl Guides and Girl Scouts carry out an amazing variety of short and long term service projects around the world. An educational organization based on spiritual values must be concerned with the quality of life in each of its member countries. Guiding projects focus on the social, educational and health aspects of life in urban and rural communities.

Girl Guides/Girl Scouts have organized clean-up campaigns in Japan, Korea and Canada. They have taught child-care in the Philippines and India. Peru and Liberia have seen them organize nutrition and food preservation courses.

With so many girls and women still remaining without access to formal education, many member organizations concentrate on literacy programs. Unemployment is also a current concern. Programs have been introduced in many countries aimed at preparing girls and women for useful employment.

The policy of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts is to encourage member organizations to develop their programs in the way which best meets the needs in their countries. The broad scope of activities undertaken by the membership of over 7.3 million indicates that the differing needs of the world are being met.

Yukon dance hall girls vied with other sharp operators to get gold from the miners during the gold stampede of 1898.

Working on a commission, they could not afford to get drunk. With the miner's eye focused on her décolletage, her drink went into a vase under the table.

There is a story of one enterprising gal who saved and bottled the contents of her vase and sold it as an elixir at church bazaars. Thus she contributed to the good cheer of the ladies auxiliary, who unwittingly bootlegged to the unsuspecting faithful.

Paul Kane Drama Club rehearsing 'Tom Jones'

The curtain will rise May 5, 6 and 7 when the Paul Kane High School Drama Club presents Henry Fielding's production of "Tom Jones."

Under the direction of Debbie Martineau, a cast of 20 students will recreate the skylarking spirit of this comic masterpiece.

Tom Jones, played by Todd McLeod, is a founding and the ward of Squire Allworthy. He is in love with Sophia and she with him, but her father has arranged for her to marry the Squire's sneaky nephew and heir, young Blifil. The romance is discovered and Tom is banished. Sophia, with her maid Honour, sets out to find him and is followed by her father, his sister, Squire Allworthy and young Blifil. They all encounter madcap adventures on the road to London and meet with many strange characters: Sophia's cousin, Harriet, who is running away from her temperamental Irish husband; Harriet's husband, Fitzpatrick; the world's most ineffectual highwayman; Partridge, a barber and surgeon suspected of being Tom's father; Mrs. Waters, a friendly widow; and the nervous Justice Dowling, eternally pressed for time.

This remarkable play captures all the laugh-a-minute hilarity for which "Tom Jones" is famed. Be sure to watch for further details regarding ticket sales in future issues of The Gazette.

Rehearsals are in full swing at the Walterdale Theatre for Live Spelled Backwards, one of three one-act plays to be presented from March 1 to 5 inclusive. Written by Jerome Lawrence, Live Spelled Backwards is directed by Edie Tisor and its cast includes Jim Elgeo, Grant Carmichael, Dave Benton, Tim Marriot, Susan Oppelt and Laura Zuk.

Archaeologist explains 'Chariots of the Gods'

Dr. Clifford Wilson, former director of the Australian Institute of Archaeology, world traveller and author of the million copy seller "Crash Go the Chariots" in answer to Erich von Daniken's "Chariots of the Gods" will be speaking and showing slides at a free public lecture at the Jubilee Auditorium in Edmonton on Friday, February 25, beginning at 8 p.m. Dr. Wilson's talk will also include archaeological findings that confirm the accuracy of the Bible as an historical record.

In recent years there has come a wild speculation that the earth may have been visited by UFO creatures from outer space thousands of years ago, and that the human race may be the result of a deliberate act of breeding by space visitors. Dr. Wilson contends that such theories are both unscientific and unbiblical.

Dr. Wilson, who also has a Bachelor of Divinity from Melbourne College of Divinity in Australia, says that archaeology has done much to demonstrate to anyone willing to read the findings, that the early Bible records are most accurate, and cannot be written off any longer as myth or legend.

This speaking engagement is sponsored by the Creation Science Association of Alberta.

Work of Edmonton painter to be exhibited

A one-man exhibition of paintings by Philip Darrah, an Edmonton artist, will be on view at The Edmonton Art Gallery from March 1-21.

Although primarily abstract, his paintings waver between those that are suggestive of recognizable objects and those that are starker and simplified in the amount of imagery that may be surmised. Some paintings are filled with odd or humorous shapes and whimsical afterthoughts in the form of dots or other naive markings.

Philip Darrah presently teaches in the Department of Art and Design at the University of Alberta.

An informal opening will be held at the Edmonton Art Gallery on Sunday, March 6 at 2:30 - 4:30 p.m. for the public to meet the artist.

Citadel production celebrates Playwrite's 80th year

Schweyk in the Second World War by Bertolt Brecht opens in The Shooter Theatre Saturday, February 26 commemorating the late poet's 80th year. Written during the second world war (1941-44) and first performed in Polish in 1957, Schweyk in the Second World War is a satirical musical drama staged as The Citadel's fourth mainstage production of the 76-77 season.

Schweyk in the Second World War is directed by Theatre Director John Neville with musical direction by Peter Yakimovich, the musical director of the Citadel's Oh Coward! Set design is by Murray Laufer, with lights and costumes designed by Martin Johnson. The superlative craftsmanship of Howard Munford, the Citadel's Props Master, is seen throughout the production.

Schweyk is Eric House, the eminent Canadian actor seen last season at the Citadel as Sidney Hopcroft in Absurd Persons Singular. Schweyk's friend, Baloun, is played by Charles Irvine who comes to the Citadel from a recent engagement with Black Theatre Canada. Peggy Mahon, known to audiences from her appearances on the CBC series The Frankie Howard Show, plays Mrs. Anna Kopecka the owner of the "Flagon."

Schweyk is more than a mere character; he represents a basic human attitude. Schweyk, a Little Man, defeats the powers that be, the whole universe in all its absurdity, not by opposing but by complying with them. Brecht's Schweykian philosophy is based on the idea that it is often wisest to purchase one's peace and quiet by a show of compliance and even cheerful servility towards even the most absurd authorities.

Schweyk in the Second World War runs until March 19 during which time The Citadel Theatre and Northern Light Theatre collaborate to present a Brecht program for a Noontime Presentation Friday, March 11. Tickets for Schweyk in the Second World War and the Noontime Presentation are available at the Citadel Box Office 425-1820.

The first 22 passengers to land in San Francisco from the Yukon goldfields late in 1897 had $650,000 in gold dust among them.

Three local artists featured at Guild Gallery

Over the weekend of February 24 to 27, the St. Albert Arts and Crafts Guild Gallery will feature the work of three local artists. Quilts by Pearlene Schnitzler, paintings by Pauline Pike and historical sketches by Keith Bell will be on display at the Art Centre, on Sunset Boulevard behind Vital Grandin School.

Pearlene Schnitzler learned quilting from her husband's grandmother, Mrs. Bourassa, a Saskatchewan pioneer. Quilting has been one of Pearlene's hobbies for the past three years. She has been designing her own patterns as well as using the traditional ones.

In the past weeks, Pearlene has taped a series of television programs with Jo Greene, demonstrating various quilting projects. She has demonstrated her 'cottage craft' at the Multicultural Centre, Stony Plain and teaches quilting workshops for the St. Albert Parks and Recreation Department.

Pearlene will be displaying large quilts in the traditional patterns of a Quebec fan pattern, the Irish chain pattern and Grandmothers' Flower Garden. Other projects that will be displayed will include placemats, chair covers and a tea cozy.

Pauline Pike, of Morinville, has been painting in oil, acrylic and water color for 12 years. She prefers landscapes in oil, often painting Birch trees worked from her own sketches.

While living in British Columbia Pauline was a member of the Quesnel Art Society for 12 years, attending Canadian Federation of Artists workshops and an extended drawing course from the College of New Caledonia. She has exhibited in the Quesnel Art Society Centre; Gordon Galleries, Prince George and the St. Albert Arts and Crafts Guild Gallery.

Pauline is presently instructing three, 'painting for pleasure' adult education classes for the Sturgeon Regional Recreation in Morinville.

The third artist in the exhibit is historical artist Keith Bell. Keith records familiar landscapes, local historical buildings and Canadian Indians. His work will also be on display at the St. Albert Library during the coming week.

The exhibit will be officially opened by Bernie March, director of Parks and Recreation for the City of St. Albert at 8 p.m., Thursday, February 24. Everyone is invited to come, meet the artists and have a cup of coffee.

The gallery hours are 7 - 9 p.m., Thursday and Friday, 1 - 4 p.m., Saturday and Sunday. This is the first of a series of exhibits by Arts and Crafts Guild members.

Mrs. Pearlene Schnitzler of St. Albert is one of three artists whose work will be on display this weekend at the St. Albert Arts and Crafts Guild Gallery. Pearlene's handmade quilts are beautiful and gay in colour and design. The Gallery is located on Sunset Boulevard behind Vital Grandin School.

Charlie Chan

series continues

The Community Programs Section of the Library is currently presenting a series of Charlie Chan mystery movies on Saturdays and Sundays at 2 p.m. each day in the Central Library Theatre. Upcoming films are:

Feb. 26 and 27: Charlie Chan's Secret; March 5 and 6: Charlie Chan in London.

Keith Bell's works in Library display

By Barb Galbraith
and Margrit McCreath

The St. Albert Public Library is pleased to have on display for the next few weeks pen and ink sketches by Keith Bell. Mr. Bell, a native of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, has been a resident of St. Albert for the past five years. He has been sketching since he was a young boy when his favorite subjects were sailing ships and mountains, and it is only in the last four years that he has become more serious and more involved with his art. Keith is a self-taught artist and his sketches are primarily along the historical vein, as you will see in the works at the library. The sketches on display include the St. Albert Hotel built in 1885, Fleuri Perron's General Store, and Grandin House 1861. You may be familiar with Keith's drawings from the hasty notes sold by the St. Albert Historical Society. Other subjects for his pictorial representations include landscapes and Canadian Indians.

Keith works solely with pen and ink and we were surprised to find his art kit consists of only pens, nibs, a bottle of India ink, pencils and an eraser. To compliment his enthusiasm for his hobby of sketching, Keith is an avid photographer and has a collection of over 3,000 photographs of old barns and buildings, historical sites and just "old rustic stuff." Keith calls himself "picture happy." He uses many of these photographs for his sketches, as well as material he gathers from research he does at the Archives in Edmonton and the Oblate collection, not to mention hundreds of miles put on his car driving through Saskatchewan and Alberta countryside.

At one time Keith published a weekly historical article in the Moose Jaw Times Herald. Working together with the librarian, he dug up old stories and interviewed local pioneers. Both Keith and his wife, Gayle, are very interested in the past and are active members of the St. Albert Historical Society.

Keith is recording past and living history of his works. He has turned down many a quiet country road searching for old structures to sketch which capture the character of the prairies. He is mindful of the past and present and his chief concern is to have a living continuity with the past.

Creative clothing designers take the limelight

The University Art Gallery and Museum is again planning an event to celebrate the creativity which has been evident in clothing in the past few years. An invitation is extended to all those who have created their own clothing, sculptural wearables, or embellished such basic items as shirts, skirts, jeans, and what you will, to wear their creations at the Creative Clothing Contest on Saturday, March 12, 1977.

There will be a panel of five judges who will choose the winners from several different categories, and prizes will be provided in the form of gift certificates to the winning contestants. As an added feature, the winning entries in the contest will be exhibited at the University Art Gallery and Museum from mid-March to mid-April. Winning contestants who agree will also be given the opportunity to have their outfits circulated throughout Canada in a travelling exhibition organized by the University with the assistance of Alberta Culture.

This contest is open to everyone and the more participation, the better. Some of the possibilities include a dazzling array of techniques such as silkscreen, batik, tie-dye, embroidery, painting, applique, patchwork, weaving, quilting, knotting, knitting, crocheting, netting and printing.

For further information please write to the University Art Gallery and Museum, Ring House One, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta, T6G 2E2, or call 432-5834.

World prayer services will focus on 'Love in Action'

Eight St. Albert churches are involved in the World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 4, which will be held this year in the St. Albert United Church. "Love in Action" is the theme for the 1977 services.

This year the program for the service comes to us from Christian women behind the iron curtain in the German Democratic Republic. About 3000 communities across Canada and 180 countries around the world will share the inter-denominational day of prayer and fellowship.

The common order of the prayer service means that people who belong to the family of God around the world will join in offering up their prayers that love in action, through the power of the Holy Spirit, may bring hope and encouragement to the downtrodden and togetherness among the people of the world.

Marjorie Stelck, the executive director of the Bissell Centre in Edmonton will be guest speaker at the service in St. Albert.

The World Day of Prayer is sponsored in Canada by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada, and offering are used to support ecumenical programs that meet human needs both in Canada and in other countries.

Last year, of the $52,835 distributed, part of the funds went to medical work and help for children in Asia, Africa, and Lebanon, assistance for poor in Greece; earthquake victims in Guatemala, aid to women's projects in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, Central and South America, as well as to homes for the elderly in Thailand and Sri Lanka. Canadian recipients included: the Canadian Bible Society, the H. H. Williams Memorial Hospital Hay River, Inter-varsity Christian Fellowship of Canada, the Mission to Seamen, the Jona, Milton Society for the Blind in Canada, the Quaker Prison Committee, and many others.

Development & peace marks 10th anniversary

Father Bill Ryan s.j., formerly with the Canadian Catholic Conference and presently working with the Centre for Concern in Washington, D.C., will be in Edmonton March 10th to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace. Father Ryan is well known in North America for his work in social justice.

Area workshops are in progress for those participating in education programs as part of the planning for 10

Days for World Development and Share Lent programs in the parishes.

Food will be the focus of Share Lent again this year, with films, slides and articles being made available. The Bishop's Labour Statement is available from the Development and Peace office as well.

More information on the 10th anniversary plans for March 10 and the 10 Days programs will be forthcoming from Patricia Young of the Edmonton Diocesan Committee.

Truckers advance

Neil Flynn Esso Truckers advanced to the Zone 3 provincial juvenile finals against Stony Plain Monday night with a tremendous come-from-behind 4-1 win over Leduc Stingers. Stingers had won the opening game in the two-game total goal series last Friday in Leduc by a 3-1 score.

The largest crowd of the season to watch a juvenile game were treated to some fine end-to-end action as well as some outstanding goal-tending by both netminders.

Pre-game ceremonies saw members of both teams observe a two-minute silence in memory of Darrell Ness and Dennis Reimer, teammates on the St. Albert Sabres juvenile team, who were buried earlier in the day in Edmonton and St. Albert. Members of the Truckers all wore black arm bands.

Truckers entered the game down two goals but quickly got one of them back on Real Huot's goal at 7:51 of the first period with Mike Mitchell and Donald Oullette assisting. Leduc tied the game at 17:21 of the period on a shot from the point by John Scott that was deflected past St. Albert goalie Glen McRae. It was Leduc's only goal as McRae was extremely sharp coming up with a number of next to impossible saves.

Travis Parayko put St. Albert out in front 2-1 early in the second with Mark Harmon assisting on the play.

Huot's second goal of the game at the 12:52 mark of the period came when St. Albert were two men short. Mark Kanid did some fine forechecking to set up the goal which gave St. Albert a 3-1 lead and a tie in the series. Chriss Crozier of Leduc went off for high sticking at 2:25 of the third period and just over a minute later Don Oullette took a pass from Mike Mitchell and Mark Kanik and scored the winning goal.

Referee Jim McFall, along with linesmen Walter Popik, handled the game very well and were in complete control throughout the contest. St. Albert took 12 of the 17 penalties called including a game misconduct to Dave Kieser for swearing which will call for a one-game suspension.

Truckers will now advance to the Zone 3 finals against Stony Plain with the series to be completed by March 13. No dates of the two games are known at press time.

Generals drop important game to Barrhead

Standard Generals lost a great chance to clinch first place in the west division of the nine-team Alberta Junior "B" Hockey League as they were upset 8-6 by Barrhead

Sherwood Park Barons knocked the St. Albert Comets out of the "A" division of the Alberta intermediate provincial play-offs Saturday night in St. Albert with a 5-3 win over the Comets. Barons also won the first game of a two-game, total-goal series last Saturday night in the Park with a close 4-3 score, and won the round by a 9 to 6 margin.

Barons now advance in the "A" section against the Edmonton Bruins in Zone 2 action. Bruins lost their first game against Stony Plain Eagles by a 6-5 score but came back in the second game and won a 6-3 to take the two game series 11 to 9.

Comets will now play the Eagles in "B" playoffs. Game dates are not known at press time.

The largest crowd of the season showed up Saturday night to cheer on both teams, but the Comets just couldn't seem to get it all together and found themselves behind throughout the whole game - even though they outshot the Barons 40 to 27.

Baron goaltender Rene Alain was the difference as he came up with some excellent saves throughout the game, and stopped many a good scoring chance. Dale Henwood in goal for St. Albert also had to be sharp on a number of occasions but allowed two questionable goals early in the second period.

The game featured end-to-end action with more stiff body checks thrown than the Edmonton Oilers have seen in all their 58 games this season. The first period was scoreless with both goalies making some superb saves as both clubs went all out trying to take command of the game.

Barons got on the scoreboard early in the second period on a goal by ex-Edmonton Oil King Henry Van Drunen, while both teams were playing a man short as a result of fighting penalties to Darrel Myers of the Barons and Brian Georgy of the Comets.

Comets Andy Tymko went off for holding at 2:08 and at 3:48 Barons went ahead 2-0 on a powerplay goal by Ed Leigman.

Barons took a three goal lead at 6:42 on an unassisted goal by Bob Marinkovich and it really put the Comets behind the eight ball as they now were down four goals in the series and needed to score a bunch in a hurry if they were to stay in "A" playoffs.

Hard working John Phelan gave the hometown fans something to cheer about at the 13:43 mark as he scored St. Albert's first goal and it seemed to give the team a lift. They had some great scoring chances but Alain came up big in the Barons net.

Barons took advantage of another Comet penalty when Ted Flannagan scored Sherwood Park's fourth goal while Rich Perrault was off for charging at 19:38.

PENALTIES SPOIL CHANCE TO COME BACK

Comet's took control of the game in the third period with a pair of powerplay goals, both by all-star defenseman Rich Perrault. The first came at 1:22 of the second at 11:55 to bring St. Albert to within one goal of tying the game, and only two short in tying the series. With almost half a period to play it appeared as if the Comets might pull out the game. But they saw their chances drop as Doug Currie took an unnecessary charging penalty and the team had to play a man short. Andy Tymko also went off at 17:27 for roughing.

Currie took an unnecessary charging penalty at 14:30 and a minute later defenseman John Gallimore scored from the point to put the Barons ahead by two and three overall.

Andy Tymko went off for roughing at 17:27 and just as he was coming back on, Perry Pearn took Comet's third penalty in a row for tripping which eliminated all hopes of a come-back. Comets played most of the last six minutes shorthanded and you can't do that if you expect to win, especially against a team like the Barons.

Referee Ron Panchyshyn didn't have one of his better nights but had the game under control from start to finish. Each club took 13 penalties including a major for fighting. But the Barons took advantage and scored three powerplay goals to the Comets two.

Comets score close win over Tomahawks

St. Albert Comets scored their fifth win in a row and 25th of the season Tuesday night with a close 6-5 victory over Enoch Tomahawks.

The win gave St. Albert first place in the nine-team Alberta Major Intermediate Hockey League as they are now eight points ahead of Sherwood Park Barons with both clubs having only two games each remaining in the schedule.

Comets and the Barons will play in Sherwood Park Saturday, February 26 and on the 28th the Comets will host Stony Plain Eagles. John Phelan was the big scorer for the Comets against Enoch coming up with three goals while Rich Perrault, Doug Currie and Jim Blaney added singles.

All playoff positions have been decided with the exception of the sixth spot which could go to either Camrose, Enoch or Wetaskiwin. Whichever one finishes in sixth will play the Comets in a best of five series with the winner getting a bye into the league finals.

Other match-ups have Sherwood Park playing whoever finishes in fifth spot, probably Enoch while Edmonton Bruins and Stony Plain will meet in the other series.

Sabres breeze through 1st Provincial round

K of C Sabres Provincial Reps from St. Albert had little trouble in disposing of the Spruce Grove Provincial team this past week. The Sabres pasted the Grove team on Monday by a 10 to 1 score. They continued the same pattern in Spruce Grove on Friday night as they completely dominated the game again and walked away with a 14 to 2 victory. It was the Sabres first round in their Provincial zone play-downs, which was a two game, total goal affair.

Sabres will now meet the winner of the Leduc-Camrose series at the St. Albert Arena February 25.

Keith Heyburn paced the Sabres in the first game, racking up four goals and an assist for a five point night. Kurt Bokenfohr also had a five point evening popping in one goal and gaining four assists. Single goals for the Sabres went to Andre Lavellee, Sonny Gramlich, Ross McRae, Ken Myck and Gary Kunz. Sonny Gramlich assisted on three goals, with Gary Kunz and Lavellee getting two assists each. Single assists went to Ken Myck, Brad Scott and Cameron Swist.

Sabres were held scoreless in the first period even though they outshot the Spruce Grove team by 18 to 6. However following two periods of play they led by 3 to 0. In the third period the Sabres outscored their opposition by 7 to 1. The St. Albert squad outshot the Grove by a 59 to 17 count.

The second game played at Spruce Grove was never in doubt as the Sabres rolled up a first period lead of 4 to 1. Increased it to 8 to 2 by the end of the second and scored six more goals in the third. Sonny Gramlich with three goals and two assists led the Sabres attack. Troy Murray, Ross McRae and Scott Holliday had two goals each, with singles going to Brad Scott, Dennis Sabourin, Andre Lavellee, Keith Heyburn and Ken Myck. Captain Troy Murray gained two assists, with single assists going to Brad Scott, Cameron Swist, Dennis Sabourin, Andre Lavellee, Shane Antoniuk, Ross McRae, Keith Heyburn and Gary Kunz.

Sabres had no mercy on the Grove netminder again as they peppered 58 shots at the Grove net. Kevin Pennington easily handled 13 shots directed his way.

The series was cleanly played from a penalty standpoint as there were only a total of 16 penalties called in both games, with the two teams splitting them evenly. Sabres went without their highscoring forward Kurt Bokenfohr in the second as he was sidelined with an appendix operation. Defenceman Dave Muskens who was called up from the house league recently, was officially put on the Sabres roster over the weekend. This brings the Sabres back to five defencemen as they head for the provincial title. Sabres following the series, left for Grande Prairie where they will play two exhibition games on the weekend.

Generals

Cont'd From Page 21 (Vermilion and Wainwright), while the Barrhead club has three games remaining in their schedule. Elks play St. Paul, Vegreville and Wainwright.

The club will have to win both games if they hope to finish in first place and get the choice of home advantage in the playoffs.

Generals jumped into an early second period lead of 3-1 on goals by Jim Grant, Matt Lister and Randy Patrick.

Barrhead fought back with a pair of goals in less than three minutes to tie the game, only to see St. Albert go ahead 4-3 on Grant's second of the game at 6:22. Elks got that one back at 8:51 and then went out in front for the first time at 15:13 on Rick Provencal's second goal of the night.

Lister scored a powerplay goal at 16:09 to give St. Albert a 5-5 tie going into the final period of play. Grant scored his third of the night at 6:25 to give St. Albert a 6-5 lead, but it was not enough as Barrhead scored three unanswered goals for a 8-6 win.

Generals will be in Vermilion tonight and will close out their schedule Saturday night at home against Wainwright.

Nu-West Canadians return from Quebec

Seventeen St. Albert Pee-wee BB Nu-West Canadians boarded an aircraft on February 8 and headed east to participate in the Quebec International Pee-wee Hockey Tournament. Eleven days later they arrived back at the International Airport in Edmonton. As they entered the terminal building from their Boeing 727, the expressions on their faces conveyed to those who were there to welcome them back their feelings about their journey.

Success, satisfaction, tired, and good to be home were words which did not have to be spoken.

These young hockey nomads represented our fine city in extremely fine fashion in La Belle Province. Their performance on the ice was most acceptable and although they never won the tournament, their respectable showing of three wins and three losses was most commendable. Their win over the Swedish team was the highlight of the trip, and a source of much satisfaction to the St. Albert players.

What was more commendable was the supreme unintentional compliment from a City of Quebec mother who stated just prior to their departure, "I do wish the boys could stay longer in order that we could get to know them better." No further words are necessary to explain the success and acceptance of our young emissaries. They indeed accomplished their mission in truly professional and gentlemanly style.

The Nu-West Canadians are now faced with an extremely heavy schedule as they move into provincial and league playoffs. Nu-West travel to Spruce Grove on Tuesday for the first game of a two-game total goal series. The Grove visits St. Albert for the second game on Thursday, February 24. Starting time is 7:30. The winner of this provincial playdown moves on to meet Hinton, Alberta.

St. Albert Figure Skating Club

The ball is rolling. The executive reports that preparations have begun, for what they hope will be a successful ice show. Any parents of skaters willing to help, please offer your assistance to the Carnival Chairman, Lorelle Phillips (459-6445) who has plenty of work for everyone. Nothing difficult, but all necessary for the show to go "on."

Hope you skaters are working on your posters! The deadline is March 1st and the information necessary for your posters, is on the arena bulletin board. A total of nine prizes will be awarded, so get busy and become a winner. Heddy Blades (citizen of the year) and Wally Wellman (from the St. Albert Sportshop) have consented to judge these posters. This will take place Friday, March 4th at 7 p.m. at the Grandin Shopping Centre.

Tickets for the ice carnival are available from club members, the St. Albert Sportshop and Ozzie's Sportshop. Tickets should be handed in by March 25, so buy one now and come and see our Stars On Ice.

The final day for the Nationals, in our skating program will be Monday, March 21. Rehearsals will then begin for the carnival on Thursday, March 24. If by then, you have not received your copy of the schedule, watch for the times to be listed in our figure skating column.

March 2nd test day, for figures and dances is cancelled and the skating schedule is as follows: Super Nationals - 2:30 p.m. - 3:15 p.m., Flood - 3:15 - 3:30 p.m., Patch C.F.S.A. - 3:30 p.m. - 4:15 p.m., Free Skate - 4:15 p.m. - 5 p.m., Dance - 5 p.m. - 5:30 p.m., Flood - 5:30 - 5:45 p.m., Patch - 5:45 p.m. - 6:30 p.m., Free Skate - 6:30 p.m. - 7 p.m.

Scorpions drop into 'D' Provincial play

Westlock Eagles dropped Calahoo Speedway Mobile Home Scorpions into the "D" division of the Alberta Intermediate provincial playoffs as they won both games in a two-game total goal series. Eagles won the opener by a 6-3 score and also took the second by an 8-4 count.

Marcel St. Arnaud led the way for the Eagles with a pair of goals while singles went to Maurice Dusseault, Kevin Herricks, Neil Bain, Ron Kelly, Mickey St. Arnaud and Art Matthew.

Scorpions received goals from Rick Caton, Terry Bowman, Gary Ferguson and Gary Atcheson.

Scorpions will now play the loser of the Lamont-Bonnyville series and it would appear to be Lamont as they lost their opener by a 11-2 score. Eagles will meet Bonnyville in "C" play.

Also in "C" play Morinville and Slave Lake played to a 6-6 tie last Saturday in Slave Lake with the second game slated for Morinville Saturday night. Gibbons took out Fort McMurray in two straight games and will meet the winner of the Morinville-Slave Lake series.

Sun Devils suffer first defeat at hands of Zamboni brothers

The Sun Devils came back with a strong victory Friday night after a weekend ski trip to Jasper, in an aggressive game against the Barbarians. The final score was 8-5 with goals by: Wayne Biggs (2), Boris Luciw (2), Alex Beekman, Alex Ciesielski, Wally Losinski and Byron Gray. Following the game, refreshments were served at the exclusive - Maxie's, by Doris the strange butler.

The Flying Zamboni Brothers played a strong game on Sunday, defeating the Devils five to two, with goals by Alex Beekman and Boris Luciw. This also proved to be an aggressive match with a few fights and numerous penalties. The Sun Devils were shorthanded for at least 90 percent of the game, and picked up a number of bad injuries. Wayne Biggs took six stitches over the left eye from a high stick, Robbie Andruchow re-injured his dislocated shoulder, Ken Russ re-injured his leg and Wally Losinski injured his right ankle.

That's all folks!

Sabres victorious in Grande Prairie

Our Sabres experienced a very busy weekend and now understand that late night games, heavy travelling and top notch hockey do not go hand in hand.

In a late game at Spruce Grove Friday night, St. Albert eliminated the Grove in their first provincial showdown. Early Saturday morning our boys ventured to Grande Prairie for an afternoon game. The Sabres were extremely tired and were fortunate to come from behind to gain a 5-5 tie in the first match.

Troy Murray, the obvious first star of the game, paced the Sabres with two goals and an assist. Keith Heyburn turned in a good performance as he also had two goals and an assist including the fifth goal giving them the tie with only 13 seconds remaining. Dave Muskens, a late addition to the Sabres, has been playing very well and picked up his first goal as a member of the team.

St. Albert 7
Grande Prairie 3

In the second game, a well rested and inspired Sabres club throttled the Grande Prairie Elks 7 to 3.

The new line of Sonny

Gramlich, Keith Heyburn and Ken Myck tallied for nine points with each member collecting three points apiece.

Defensive star, Brad Scott played an excellent game and managed to pick up a goal and set up two others. Team captain Troy Murray and Andres Lavallee netted singles to round out the scoring.

The weekend did carry some bad news for the Sabres as the team incurred two serious injuries. High scoring right winger Kurt Bokenfohr will be out of the line-up for about a month as he encountered appendicitis. Garv Kunz, another free wheeling and exciting winger lost two teeth in Grande Prairie and hopefully will be in the line-up this weekend when the Sabres meet Leduc in round two of provincial play.

Baseball season to open with a bang-up parade

The first ever "Opening Day" Minor League Baseball parade to be held in St. Albert will start off the 1977 baseball season at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 30.

The parade will form up at Mission Park and proceed south on Perron Street to Churchill Drive, then west to the Lions Park Bandshell where a concert will take place. His Worship Dr. Richard H. M. Plain, will be officially present to throw out the first ball and kick off the 1977 season for approximately 500-600 future big league prospects. Immediately after pre-game ceremonies, team pictures will be taken and a colored mounted print will be presented to each participant at the end of the season. Scheduled baseball games will take place at the various diamonds throughout the city for the remainder of the day.

Parade Marshal for this event is past-president of the St. Albert Minor League Baseball Association, Mr. Jerry Samagalski.

The parade is to consist of marching bands, floats, majorettes and school cheerleaders, decorated bicycles and approximately 34 minor league teams dressed in colorful sponsored uniforms. Entrants will be judged and prizes awarded in various categories. Attempts are being made to obtain the services of the world famous Canadian Airborne "Skyhawks" precision parachute team to perform and display their talents high in the air over Lions Park.

Any person or group interested in participating in this parade is requested to contact Jerry Samagalski at 459-5247.

Johnston rink in Western championship

Lineups have been completed for the first Western Canada team curling championships, "The Carling O'Keefe Shield" to be held in Saskatoon from February 24-27.

Doug Johnston of Edmonton will join the previously declared representatives from Alberta: Gil Svensen of Leduc and Tom Kroeger of Consort. Johnston had been third in the Alberta standings, but could have been bumped had George Fink of Calgary won the Consols.

The 12 rinks will each play six games against opposing provinces and the total number of victories by each province will determine the top two, who will meet in the final on Sunday afternoon, February 27.

Svensen is going with Wayne Saboe, Marvin Schmidt and Norm Balzer. Tom Kroeger has Rick Cust, Brian Kroeger and John Hunter. Doug Johnston has Darrell Sutton, Denis Sutton and Frank Omoe. Each Province is allowed one substitute curler.

The opening draw in the Carling O'Keefe Shield at 3 p.m. tomorrow has Svensen and Johnston of Alberta pitted against Pierce of B.C. and McGrath of Saskatchewan respectively. Third Alberta rink, Kroeger's foursome, goes against Giles of B.C. at 8 p.m. Thursday evening.

Three rounds will be played Friday and Saturday will be busier yet with four draws. The two Brier-bound teams, John Usackis of Lac Du Bonnet, Manitoba, and Les Rogers of Regina, Saskatchewan will play each other in the Shield on Saturday morning.

One of the highlights of the Namsa Winter Carnival was the presentation of a cheque for the sum of $2,100.00 to the Assistant Fire Chief, Stan Chettleborough, representative of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, from Ron Edmonds of the St. Albert Saint Bernard Dog Fanciers Club. The money had been raised last December at the annual Christmas Tree Drag. Also in the picture are Florence Thompson (left) and Dorothy Berend, both of the Saint Bernard Club. Following the presentation, the Saint Bernards pulled many of the children at the Namsa Carnival around on sleds. [That's Ron's daughter in the centre]

Reminiscences from Gibbons

POST OFFICE
SOCIAL CENTRE

The Post Office opened at an early hour in the afternoon, after the train was gone. This small dark interior of the narrow post office waiting room, was a real place for visiting amongst people. News was shared, talk of crops etc. Huge parcels containing clothing, shoes or new Easter bonnets, which had been ordered from the Eaton's Catalogue were received by people with radiant faces at the prospect of getting a pretty, organdy trimmed dress, a new suit for a boy or some nice summer bonnet to be worn on Sunday or for "best."

Norman Knott had the very tough job of cutting up the great chunks of meats and hanging the great sides onto hooks in the heavily timbered "refrigeration room," which was kept cold by great blocks of ice. Sawdust covered the floors of the butcher shop. It had heavy chopping block tables, great meat saws, knives and meat cleavers, hanging in a long row.

In those days people shared the good and bad. The farmers and farm wives had none of the labour saving devices we now enjoy. Yet Sunday, everyone got into their best clothes. Sirge suits, cleaned by hand and pressed by heavy irons were heated on a coal and wood stove. Patent leather slippers were shined with a bit of vaseline or a banana peel.

Pretty coats and dresses and hats donned for a Sunday ride in buggy or a car of that vintage. Everyone took Sunday off, even if it was harvest time. There was always "company" for Sunday dinners, everywhere. Nobody locked their doors in those days. Nobody had to, there were "hobos" riding the empty box cars. They were jobless men seeking work. Occasionally an inmate from the Oliver Institute would come, hiking down the railroad track. But who cared?

Villeneuve boy passes

Many friends and relatives attended prayers for Albert Denis Belanger on Sunday evening, January 30, 1977 at St. Peter's Church in Villeneuve. Father Roche said mass and Victor Soetaert Jr., read the scriptures.

On Monday morning at 10 o'clock the funeral mass of the Resurrection was celebrated by Father Roche of Villeneuve, Father Perron, pastor of University of Alberta Hospital, and Father Cunningham formerly of Villeneuve. Music was by Simonne Sheehan, organist and the parish choir. Pallbearers were Oscar Constantin, Denis Constantin, Raymond Constantin, Paul Iseke Richard Lutz, and Donat Laurin. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Following the service, luncheon was served in the hall by the ladies of the community and many relatives.

Albert, born on November 22, 1964, is survived by his parents, Robert and Jeanne, one brother Normand, and seven sisters Rolande, Laurette, Roberta, Jeannine, Annette Paquette, Louise Dubois and Pauline Berube.

Albert enjoyed ski-dooing, and playing hockey. He was also an altar boy in Villeneuve.

He will be sadly missed by everyone who knew him.

SPECULATIONS ON CURTAILMENT OF WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS

Finance Minister Donald Macdonald last week strengthened speculation that the government's wage and price control program will be terminated this summer or fall.

Speaking on the CTV Question Period program, Mr. Macdonald said that controls would be removed this year providing agreement can be reached between Ottawa and the provinces, with labour and business on a set of post-control restraints.

The anti-inflation program, introduced in October 1975, was scheduled to run until the end of 1978, but mounting pressure from both the public and the business community, coupled with prospects of a mid-1978 election, have for some time been signalling an earlier halt to the scheme.

Mr. Macdonald also stated last week in the House of Commons that moves to remove controls could be made at an early date if "we can get a commitment on the part of all the major decision-makers in the community to restrain expect-tations after controls come off." The Minister said that if there is no co-operation on the part of the provinces, business and labour, controls would have to continue at least through the summer.

ABORTION REPORT

A 473 page report on a three-member fact-finding committee on therapeutic abortion tabled in the Commons last week has found Canada's 1969 abortion law surrounded by confusion, unclear standards and social inequity.

The committee, headed by Toronto sociologist Robin Badgley, did not, however, recommend any changes in the abortion law itself. Instead, it called for changes in its application.

The report suggested regional centres specializing in abortion would do an effective job in clearing up some of the problems. Fewer than half the Canadian hospitals now eligible under law to carry out therapeutic abortions do so. Those that don't usually refuse because medical and nursing staff object on ethical or religious grounds.

GOOD MANNERS A RULE

People of those eras, had been brought up knowing manners, courtesy, respect, from the cradle onward. Kids in the 1920's and 1930's didn't even feel deprived, in any way. No-one ever heard a boy or girl, man or woman ever utter, "I'm bored, or I could climb the walls." There was too much to do. They made ski's from wooden barrel staves, all sanded smooth and waxed.

Many of us went down to play by the Sturgeon River where you could fish or gather clams. I went along with my two brothers and two little newly arrived English boys when they went drowning or snaring gophers. There was a bounty of two tails for 1¢. That 1¢ was good money then. I remember finding one gopher, which was "drowned out" in the ball grounds. He was partially alive, so I did a sort of artificial respiration on him, by pressing his stomach to pump out the water. He warmed up under my hand, survived and wobbled away toward some willows, where he gained his health, to my tears.

Gibbons was a very busy place to live in those days and residents were like "family."

During the Klondike Gold Rush, partners would often spend the winter whip-sawing lumber to build their boat for hauling supplies to the gold fields. The rigorous work often caused tempers to flare. Occasionally a partnership was dissolved by sawing a boat in two after a quarrel. It took about 800 feet of whip-sawed lumber to build a boat to haul one ton of freight.

Open house at Sturgeon Ornamental Iron Works

Now there's something new in the area north of Edmonton to beautify your home.

Sturgeon Ornamental Iron Works are marking the opening of a new plant on February 26, 1 - 6 p.m. The shop and office are located in Legal (next door to Legal Welding and Fabricating) 20 miles north of Edmonton.

The new company was established on October 1st last year. The shop fabricates interior and exterior railings, porch and patio columns, balcony railings, gates, hand-rails, fences, sign posts, spiral staircases, steel steps etc. Customers will have a choice of over 1000 designs from catalogues and albums. The firm also installs plastic hand-rail cover.

Mr. Laurent Coulombe, owner-manager, is a native of Legal. He resigned his job as regional recreation superintendent of Sturgeon Regional Recreation to pursue his ambition of designing and fabricating railings.

Laurent has been involved in this work for many years.

The shop will offer service of free estimates, a two year guarantee against defects in material and workmanship, excluding paint, and a complete home service. Customers who wish to visit their premises are welcome to do so.

Laurent and his wife Eva invite everyone to visit the new shop and office on February 26th, 1 - 6 p.m. A door prize draw will be made to highlight the afternoon. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Good news! There will be a macrame course offered starting March 3 (Thursday) at 8 p.m. at the Recreation Centre. Included with this five week course will be two lessons on primitive weaving. Sharon Veitch will be the instructor and she would like to have all those interested to register ahead of time. Contact her at 961-2399 as soon as possible.

The winter carnival is on Sunday, February 27. The action will commence with the Shavers A and B teams playing hockey against their mothers. The game is scheduled for 1 p.m. At 2 p.m. the figure skating will take place. This year two girls from the Morinville Figure Skating Club will perform. Following will be a skate-a-thon. The proceeds will go towards insulating the arena. A step in the right direction for our hopes to get artificial ice next year. Then there will be a broomball game. Town folks vs Country folks at 8 p.m., the Oldtimers hockey team will play the Busby Oldtimers.

This carnival is very time consuming and demands lots of hard work. Lets get together on this occasion and see our kids perform. They can't wait to show you.

Curly's Fabric and Variety is the name for the new shop opening soon on Main Street in the business block across from the Bank. If you do some sewing or like to be creative you can probably find your supplies there. Fabrics and notions and hobby supplies are going to be the main articles. Laurent and Connie Maurier are really anxious to get in there and accommodate you. So look for it. At the time if you need anything for sewing jeans or for macrame you can buy it at their house but call first - 961-3835. Also if your sewing machine needs servicing or immediate fixing contact the above number anytime.

On February 3 the Legal girls hockey team won their first trophy. They defeated a girls team from Drayton

Valley 4-3. This was the final game in a small tournament held at Linaria. Goals were scored by: Maria Letourneau

(one), Claire Klassen (two) and Lorretta Fizer (one). Carmen Nault as usual played a good game in goal.

Legal High School News

By Lorraine Champagne
School Reporter

Hello! To begin the new semester, the Legal Students' Union held a teen dance in the Community Hall on February 5. A big thank you to all who came and boogied to the music of Hurricane from 9:30 to 1:00.

March 19 is the date of our next dance. Time and price will be announced later.

The Students' Union is having a dance on April 30. Hal will be featured. More details later. Remember: March 19 and April 30 when two great teen dances are coming up in the Legal Community Hall.

Basketball is in full swing. The high school boys and girls teams will be playing against the OK Radio Sore Thumbs soon. The tentative date is February 22. Also, the teams have been practising hard for two games against Redwater. In Redwater, the Legal girls were defeated 40-6. The boys were defeated 36-27. The next game will be held in Legal. We'll beat them yet!

The high school students were very surprised when they noticed new curtains in their classrooms. They really brighten up the rooms!

The school's liturgical committee is having a meeting on Wednesday, February 23 to discuss the next first Friday mass, an Easter Penitential celebration for the students, and the possibility of a Senior Encounter for all the Grade 12 students before school comes to a close. This would be held at the Bishop's residence in St. Paul.

The ski lovers at Legal school want snow! They are looking forward to the Edson ski trip, which was to be held March 4. Good luck!

The advanced French Grade 11 and 12 students are busy organizing a French afternoon for the old people at the Chateau Sturgeon. The afternoon will begin with a short play, songs, traditional dances, speeches, and a bingo. Then a French-Canadian supper will be served. Omelets, pork and beans, meat pies, maple syrup, etc. The purpose of this project is to unite the young with the old to enjoy our French-Canadian culture. The tentative date is Thursday, March 31.

Legal School has some very interesting guests at the moment. First of all, two mice who were thought to be of opposite sexes. This was proved wrong, when both had babies within a few days of each other. Also, chicken eggs are being incubated for a Biology 30 project. The development is observed every two days. In 14 more days, Lucy de Champlain and Lorraine Champagne shall be the owners of a few peeping "problems" if all goes well.

Legal K of C play Lloydminster tourney

By Connie Maurier

Right you are! The Legal K of C's enjoyed another fun-filled weekend, this time in Lloydminster, for a K of C hockey tournament. On February 18, 19 and 20, 10 Legal council members along with their wives motored to Lloydminster for this annual event. Last year this K of C tournament was held in Calgary. The men played three games of hard hockey, while the women cheered them on. All the games were good and clean. The Lloydminster council certainly put on a fabulous and well organized program for all their guests. The final game was followed by a delicious banquet where the trophies were presented. The overall winning team was St. Albert council, the runners-up were the Sherwood Park council and the Fraternity trophy went to the Starr council. A dance and refreshments followed.

The lucky Legal members who went were Laurier Rivard, Roy Brisson, Roy Ouellette, Claude Maurier, Paul Morin, Ray Tremblay, Richard Maurier, Denis Limoges, Laurent Maurier and Louis Lecavalier.

Above average good weather was enjoyed throughout the weekend. And its for sure that everyone had a very good time!

D. GARY BROWNLEE, DEVELOPMENT OFFICER.

To all laundry mat rug snatchers!!

I have been a resident of Morinville for four years now, and I hardly ever have made a complaint about the people or the town. But now, I believe I have every given right in this world to yell and scream!

It was on Sunday, February 20, 1977, that I headed out to the Morinville Laundry Mat, to wash my three area rugs. I had three beautifully handmade rugs - HAND MADE - that were given to me by a very special person, my deceased grandmother. Anyways, I washed them. Then I popped them into the dryer, the drying cycle was for 30 minutes. Since I did trust the residents of Morinville, I decided to step out for a coffee while my rugs were drying. Well, needless to say, that when I got back, my rugs were gone. Yes, my rugs were stolen.

There have got to be some very inconsiderate people in this town, or else some ape has his screws loose! Yes, I'm very upset!!!

Those rugs were made for me, NOT YOU, RUG SNATCHER, by my grandmother. She put a lot of hard work and love into those rugs, for me. Also one of those rugs, belonged in my three year old son's room. How do you explain it to a three year old that some nit wit stole his rug? If you know how, you do it.

I really feel sorry for you, whoever you are, I really do! You've just got to be SICK, SICK, SICK! Stealing on a Sunday, too!

I have never done any wrong to this town, and I never plan to. Why would anyone want to steal someone else's goods? Do you get a kick out of it? Are you too broke to get your own rugs? Are you jealous? What is wrong with you??? Nowadays you can't even use a laundry mat, without being ripped off!

Whoever, whatever, you are, I am begging you to please return my rugs. My grandmother is no longer with us, Bless her Soul, and those rugs, meant a great deal to me. It's the only thing I had to remember her by, besides memories, and now Please Turn to Page 32

Seniors deadlocked in hockey Provincials

By Marg Bentz
Morinville Motors senior hockey team returned from Slave Lake with a 6-6 deadlock in provincial play-offs. The two game total point affair with the Winter Hawks has now boiled down to a sudden death game, which is to be settled Saturday, February 26 at 8 p.m., here in Morinville. If last Saturday's game in Slave Lake is any indication it will be well worth the two dollar admission charge.

Seniors demonstrated their explosive scoring ability with a five goal outburst in the first 12 minutes of play. Jack MacAskill slammed the first one home at 1:14 of the first period, assisted by Wayne Millar. Carl Royan then scored his first two, less than three minutes apart, with Norm Bohl assisting on both goals and Dex Dersch helping out on the second.

At this point, Winter Hawks managed to stem the tide somewhat when Wormacks slid one past Morinville's Bill Tieland. Morinville's Richard Wright retaliated, three minutes and 29 seconds later with an unassisted drive from the blueline. One minute later, Rick Pugliese showed the power of the draw, slipping it back to John Schrum whose low drive was subsequently tipped in by Al Bentz. Winter Hawks then showed they were made of stern stuff, getting two goals in the final three minutes of the first frame (ended 5-3), then scoring three unanswered second period goals for a 6-5 ending.

HAT TRICK FOR ROYAN

Morinville's Carl Royan rounded out his hat trick midway through the third period for the tie (assisted Dex Dersch and Don Pruss) in an action packed stanza, that saw many good chances and saves at both ends. It seems only fair that such a close, hard fought contest will be continued, where it can be witnessed by Morinville's many fans, who were unable to make the tour to Slave Lake.

MINOR HOCKEY RESULTS
Shaver A played in a tournament in Bon Accord on Saturday, February 19. The boys played well in all three games but lost hard fought contests to Gibbons 4-3, Redwater 4-3 and Bon Accord 4-2. Goals were scored by Joel Chevalier five, Riel St. Laurent, one, Serge Froment one and Darryl Oleski, one.

MITE A

Cinq Concrete Mite A beat Gibbons Greens 8-1 on Wednesday, February 16, in the second round of the playoffs. Goals were scored by Rick Mulligan, two; Ray Meunier, one; Tim Quinn, one; Sheldon Bland two and Neil Bokenfohr, two. On Saturday the boys beat Ledue's travelling team 6-2 on goals by Tim Quinn, two; Rick Mulligan, two, David Schriver one and Mark Carleton, one. Rick Mulligan scored twice in Sunday's game, which ended with a 2-2 tie.

MITE B

Mite B played Bon Accord on Friday, February 18, winning 7-4, on goals by Pat Krauskopf two, Darrin Pezer one, Jerry Lalonde one and Casey Bentz three. On Saturday, the boys beat St. Albert, in league play 4-1. Morinville's goals were scored by Casey Bentz three and Patrick Krauskopf one, while Ricky Wright replied for St. Albert.

PEEWEEES

Morinville Peeewe A beat Redwater 8-5 on Saturday, February 19, on goals by Chris Bokenfohr, three; Mike Powowsnik two, Paul Schafers two and Dwight Van Brabant one.

Peeewe B played two games last week winning 5-2 against Alexander Reserve and 4-0 against St. Albert. Goals were made by Mark Edwards, two; Ken Chalfoux two; Norm Streeter one, Keith Streeter one, Rodney Rousseau, one; Stewart Schriver one and Richard Carignan one. Brent Skjersven got the shutout and was assisted by excellent defensive play of Murray Johnson, Stewart Schriver, Robbie Hoffman and Norm Streeter.

BANTAMS

Bantam A played Elmwood last week losing 3-2. Goals scored by Marty Hooper and Mark Gibeau. They also played RQB winning 13-0 on goals by Larry Hunter one, Mark Gibeau one, Robert Wojtkiw two, Burki Butt two, Dan Blackburn one, Brandon Wood one, Marty Hooper one, Rod Bland three and Lorne Bokenfohr one. The boys again played RQB on February 20 winning 8-0 on goals by Danny Blackburn one, Brent Noyes one, Marty Hooper two, Cory Stevens two, Robert Wojtkiw one and Burki Butt, one.

SHAVER B WIN DIVISION

Congratulations to Shaver B on winning the B Division Trophy in the Redwater annual Shavers tournament on Saturday, February 19. The boys beat Gibbons 3-2 in their first game, on goals by Murray Bokenfohr two and Cary Royan one. The second game against Bon Accord, which went into overtime, was won 2-1, by Morinville with Darcy Wood scoring both goals. Darcy Wood also scored twice in the third game (against Redwater), helping the shavers win 2-1.

LAWRENCE KLUTHE WINS FARMERS BONSPIEL

The winners of the Farmers Bonspiel held at the Morinville Curling Club on February 11, 12 and 13 were as follows:

A Event: 1st Lawrence Kluthe, 2nd Ryan Myers, 3rd John Kluthe, 4th Erwin Strawson.

B Event: 1st Roger Lindstrand, 2nd Ray Charest, 3rd Gary Miller, 4th Colin McClay.

C Event: 1st Jerry Kaup, 2nd Jim Flynn, 3rd Ron Russell, 4th Bob Holzer.

MENS SPIEL COMING UP

Only 23 rinks entered the Farmers Bonspiel which was a bit of a disappointment but the mens bonspiel which is coming up on March 11, 12 and 13 looks like its going to be a huge success. The club started taking entries for 32 rinks, and because of the response they've had to turn it into a 64 rink spiel. If you want to get a rink in the Mens spiel please phone Colleen Brisson right away at 939-4525, as there are only six openings left for a 64 rink spiel.

The mixed bonspiel which is being held on the 25, 26 and 27 of March is also going great. It is being planned as a 48 rink spiel and only five openings are left. If you want to enter this bonspiel phone Colleen at 939-4525. Enter this week so you'll be sure of getting in.

Alcomdale 4H Beef Club News

By Mark Davidson

The regular monthly meeting of the Alcomdale 4H Beef Club was held on February 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Tomten. All members were present, answering roll call with their animal's heart girth in metric. Ways of making money were discussed but it was decided for now to take money from club funds for the 4H Centre and do something later. (Plans were made for our public speaking event and the choosing of our judges. The date is March 16, 7:30 p.m. at Independence Hall. We are also hosting the Regional Senior finals on March 21, 7:30 p.m., at Independence Hall, everyone welcome.

York, Beverly, Sandy and Tina, four of our junior members, all gave very good speeches. Mrs. Tomten then served a good lunch.

The members and parents who attended ice capades on January 15 enjoyed the show very much. That evening was our club skating party with quite a few guest members and parents from the 3 Star Multi Club and Riviere Qui Barre Beef Club. A good time was had by all, and we even had a few parents out on the ice.

The next meeting will be held at D. Davidson's.

Riviere Qui Barre 4H Beef Club Report

you took that away. Everytime I looked at those rugs, I was reminded of my grandmother, and of what a beautiful person she was. Of course what do you care, you just think you got a good deal.

You don't have to give my rugs back, face to face. You can phone me, or drop me a line and tell me where to pick them up. You may think I'm being pretty sobby about three rugs, but they meant a lot to me! If you do return them, I'll know that there is some good left in this world. If you don't, then I hope you take great pleasure in knowing what a great job you do in hurting people. Maybe, one of these days, you'll feel this type of hurt, and you'll know how I feel.
